FISCAL ANALYSIS

ASSUMPTION

Officials from the Department of Elementary and Secondary Education assume the proposal will have no fiscal impact on their organization. Therefore, Oversight will reflect a zero impact in the fiscal note.

Officials from the Department of Labor and Industrial Relations assume there could be impact for the Human Rights Commission (MCHR), but would be absorbable. Schools fall under public accommodations. In FY23, public accommodations made up 17.6% of total complaints received. While they have no specific data from other states who have similar legislation, they feel the increase would not be that significant. Therefore, Oversight will reflect a zero impact in the fiscal note.

In response to a similar proposal, HB 361 (2023), officials from the Attorney General's Office assumed the proposal will have no fiscal impact on their organization.

In response to a similar proposal, HB 361 (2023), officials from the Gordon Parks Elementary Charter School assumed the proposal will have no fiscal impact on their organization.

In response to a similar proposal, HB 503 (2021), officials from the High Point R-III School District assumed the proposal would have no fiscal impact on their organization.

Oversight does not anticipate a fiscal impact to school districts; however, Oversight received a limited number of responses from school districts related to the fiscal impact of this proposal. Oversight has presented this fiscal note on the best current information available. Upon the receipt of additional responses, Oversight will review to determine if an updated fiscal note should be prepared and seek the necessary approval to publish a new fiscal note. Oversight only reflects the responses received from state agencies and political subdivisions; however, other school districts were requested to respond to this proposed legislation but did not. A listing of political subdivisions included in the Missouri Legislative Information System (MOLIS) database is available upon request.
