33 or entity on a publicly available internet website;
- 34           (8) "Reasonable age verification methods", include verifying that the person 35 seeking to access the material is eighteen years of age or older by using any of the 36 following methods:
- 37           (a) Provide a digitized identification card; or
- 38           (b) Require the person attempting to access the material to comply with a 39 commercial age verification system that verifies in one or more of the following ways:
- 40           a. Government-issued identification; or
- 41           b. Any commercially reasonable method that relies on public or private 42 transactional data to verify the person attempting to access the information is at least 43 eighteen years of age or older;
- 44           (9) "Substantial portion", more than thirty-three and one-third percent of total 45 material on a website that meets the definition of material harmful to minors;
- 46           (10) "Transactional data", a sequence of information that documents an 47 exchange, agreement, or transfer between an individual, commercial entity, or third 48 party used for the purpose of satisfying a request or event. Transactional data can 49 include, but is not limited to, records from mortgage, education, and employment 50 entities.
- 51           2. (1) Any commercial entity that knowingly or intentionally publishes or 52 distributes material harmful to minors on the internet from a website that contains a 53 substantial portion of such material shall be held liable if the entity fails to perform

54 reasonable age verification methods to verify the age of individuals attempting to access 55 the material.

56 (2) Any commercial entity or third party that performs the required age 57 verification shall not retain any identifying information of the individual after access 58 has been granted to the material.

59 (3) (a) Any commercial entity that is found to have violated this section shall be 60 liable to an individual for damages resulting from a minor accessing the material, 61 including court costs and reasonable attorney's fees as ordered by the court.

62 (b) A commercial entity that is found to have knowingly retained identifying 63 information of the individual after access has been granted to the individual shall be 64 liable to the individual for damages resulting from retaining the identifying 65 information, including court costs and reasonable attorney's fees as ordered by the 66 court.

67 3. (1) The provisions of this section shall not apply to any bona fide news or 68 public interest broadcast, website video, report, or event and shall not be construed to 69 affect the rights of any news-gathering organizations.

70 (2) No internet service provider or its affiliates or subsidiaries, search engine, or 71 cloud service provider shall be held to have violated the provisions of this section for 72 providing access or connection to or from a website or other information or content on 73 the internet or a facility, system, or network not under that provider's control, including 74 transmission, downloading, storage, access software, or other to the extent such 75 provider is not responsible for the creation of the content of the communication that 76 constitutes material harmful to minors.
