DANA RADEMAN MILLER, Chief Clerk

AN ACT

To repeal section 64.231, RSMo, and to enact in lieu thereof one new section relating to county planning board hearing notices.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the state of Missouri, as follows:

Section A. Section 64.231, RSMo, is repealed and one new section enacted in lieu thereof, to be known as section 64.231, to read as follows:

64.231. 1. The county planning board shall have power to make, adopt and may publish an official master plan for the county for the purpose of bringing about coordinated physical development in accordance with present and future needs. The master plan shall be developed so as to conserve the natural resources of the county, to ensure efficient expenditure of public funds, and to promote the health, safety, convenience, prosperity and general welfare of the inhabitants. The master plan may include, among other things, a land use plan, studies and recommendations relative to the locations, character and extent of highways, railroads, bus, streetcar and other transportation routes, bridges, public buildings, schools, sewers, parks and recreation facilities, parkways, forests, wildlife refuges, dams and projects affecting conservation of natural resources. The county planning board may adopt the master plan in whole or in part, and subsequently amend or extend the adopted plan or any portion thereof. Before the adoption, amendment or extension of the plan or portion thereof, the board shall hold at least one public hearing thereon, fifteen days' notice of the time and place of which shall be published in at least one newspaper having general circulation within the county, and notice of the hearing shall also be posted ~~[at least fifteen days in advance thereof in at least two conspicuous places in each township]~~ on the county's website. The hearing may be adjourned from time to time. The adoption of the plan shall be by resolution
