

SECOND REGULAR SESSION

HOUSE BILL NO. 2402

102ND GENERAL ASSEMBLY

INTRODUCED BY REPRESENTATIVE AUNE.

4891H.011

DANA RADEMAN MILLER, Chief Clerk

AN ACT

To repeal sections 452.305 and 452.310, RSMo, and to enact in lieu thereof two new sections relating to a judgment of dissolution of marriage or legal separation.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the state of Missouri, as follows:

Section A. Sections 452.305 and 452.310, RSMo, are repealed and two new sections
2 enacted in lieu thereof, to be known as sections 452.305 and 452.310, to read as follows:

452.305. 1. The court shall enter a judgment of dissolution of marriage if:

2 (1) The court finds that one of the parties has been a resident of this state, or is a
3 member of the armed services who has been stationed in this state, for ninety days
4 immediately preceding the commencement of the proceeding and that thirty days have
5 elapsed since the filing of the petition; and

6 (2) The court finds that there remains no reasonable likelihood that the marriage can 7 be preserved and that therefore the marriage is irretrievably broken; and

8 (3) To the extent it has jurisdiction, the court has considered and made provision for 9 child custody, the support of each child, the maintenance of either spouse and the disposition
10 of property.

11 2. The court shall enter a judgment of legal separation if:

12 (1) The court finds that one of the parties has been a resident of this state, or is a
13 member of the armed services who has been stationed in this state, for ninety days
14 immediately preceding the commencement of the proceeding and that thirty days have
15 elapsed since the filing of the petition; and

16 (2) The court finds that there remains a reasonable likelihood that the marriage can be 17 preserved and that therefore the marriage is not irretrievably broken; and

EXPLANATION — Matter enclosed in bold-faced brackets [thus] in the above bill is not enacted and is intended to be omitted from the law. Matter in bold-face type in the above bill is proposed language.

18 (3) To the extent it has jurisdiction, the court has considered and made provision for 19 the custody and the support of each child, the maintenance of either spouse and the 20 disposition of property.

21 3. Pregnancy status shall not prevent the court from entering a judgment of 22 dissolution of marriage or legal separation.

23 4. Any judgment of dissolution of marriage or legal separation shall include the last 24 four digits of the Social Security numbers of the parties. The full Social Security number of 25 each party and each child shall be retained in the manner required under section 509.520.

452.310. 1. In any proceeding commenced pursuant to this chapter, the petition, a
2 motion to modify, a motion for a family access order and a motion for contempt shall be
3 verified. The petition in a proceeding for dissolution of marriage shall allege that the 4 marriage is irretrievably broken and that therefore there remains no reasonable likelihood that
5 the marriage can be preserved. The petition in a proceeding for legal separation shall allege
6 that the marriage is not irretrievably broken and that therefore there remains a reasonable
7 likelihood that the marriage can be preserved.

8 2. The petition in a proceeding for dissolution of marriage or legal separation shall set
9 forth:

10 (1) The residence of each party, including the county, and the length of residence of 11 each party in this state and in the county of residence;

12 (2) The date of the marriage and the place at which it is registered;

13 (3) The date on which the parties separated;

14 (4) The name, age, and address of each child, and the parent with whom each child 15 has primarily resided for the sixty days immediately preceding the filing of the petition for 16 dissolution of marriage or legal separation;

17 (5) Whether the wife is pregnant; however, pregnancy status shall not prevent the 18 court from entering a judgment of dissolution of marriage or legal separation;

19 (6) The last four digits of the Social Security number of the petitioner, respondent and
20 each child;

21 (7) Any arrangements as to the custody and support of the children and the 22 maintenance of each party; and

23 (8) The relief sought.

24 3. Upon the filing of the petition in a proceeding for dissolution of marriage or legal 25 separation, each child shall immediately be subject to the jurisdiction of the court in which the 26 proceeding is commenced, unless a proceeding involving allegations of abuse or neglect of 27 the child is pending in juvenile court. Until permitted by order of the court, neither parent 28 shall remove any child from the jurisdiction of the court or from any parent with whom the

29 child has primarily resided for the sixty days immediately preceding the filing of a petition for 30 dissolution of marriage or legal separation.

31 4. The mere fact that one parent has actual possession of the child at the time of filing 32 shall not create a preference in favor of such parent in any judicial determination regarding 33 custody of the child.

34 5. The respondent shall be served in the manner provided by the rules of the supreme 35 court and applicable court rules and, to avoid an interlocutory judgment of default, shall file a 36 verified answer within thirty days of the date of service which shall not only admit or deny
37 the allegations of the petition, but shall also set forth:

38 (1) The last four digits of the Social Security number of the petitioner, respondent and
39 each child;

40 (2) Any arrangements as to the custody and support of the child and the maintenance 41 of each party; and

42 (3) The relief sought.

43 6. Previously existing defenses to divorce and legal separation, including but not 44 limited to condonation, connivance, collusion, recrimination, insanity, and lapse of time, are 45 abolished.

46 7. The full Social Security number of each party and each child and the date of birth
47 of each child shall be provided in the manner required under section 509.520.

48 8. The petitioner and respondent shall submit a proposed parenting plan, either 49 individually or jointly, within thirty days after service of process or the filing of the entry of 50 appearance, whichever event first occurs of a motion to modify or a petition involving 51 custody or visitation issues. The proposed parenting plan shall set forth the arrangements that 52 the party believes to be in the best interest of the minor children and shall include but not be 53 limited to:

54 (1) A specific written schedule detailing the custody, visitation and residential time
55 for each child with each party including:

56 (a) Major holidays stating which holidays a party has each year;

57 (b) School holidays for school-age children;

58 (c) The child's birthday, Mother's Day and Father's Day;

59 (d) Weekday and weekend schedules and for school-age children how the winter,
60 spring, summer and other vacations from school will be spent;

61 (e) The times and places for transfer of the child between the parties in connection
62 with the residential schedule;

63 (f) A plan for sharing transportation duties associated with the residential schedule;

64 (g) Appropriate times for telephone access;

65 (h) Suggested procedures for notifying the other party when a party requests a
66 temporary variation from the residential schedule;

67 (i) Any suggested restrictions or limitations on access to a party and the reasons such 68 restrictions are requested;

69 (2) A specific written plan regarding legal custody which details how the decision-
70 making rights and responsibilities will be shared between the parties including the following:

71 (a) Educational decisions and methods of communicating information from the 72 school to both parties;

73 (b) Medical, dental and health care decisions including how health care providers will 74 be selected and a method of communicating medical conditions of the child and how 75 emergency care will be handled;

76 (c) Extracurricular activities, including a method for determining which activities the 77 child will participate in when those activities involve time during which each party is the 78 custodian;

79 (d) Child care providers, including how such providers will be selected;

80 (e) Communication procedures including access to telephone numbers as appropriate;

81 (f) A dispute resolution procedure for those matters on which the parties disagree or 82 in interpreting the parenting plan;

83 (g) If a party suggests no shared decision-making, a statement of the reasons for such 84 a request;

85 (3) How the expenses of the child, including child care, educational and extraordinary
86 expenses as defined in the child support guidelines established by the supreme court, will be 87 paid including:

88 (a) The suggested amount of child support to be paid by each party;

89 (b) The party who will maintain or provide health insurance for the child and how the 90 medical, dental, vision, psychological and other health care expenses of the child not paid by 91 insurance will be paid by the parties;

92 (c) The payment of educational expenses, if any;

93 (d) The payment of extraordinary expenses of the child, if any;

94 (e) Child care expenses, if any;

95 (f) Transportation expenses, if any.

96 9. If the proposed parenting plans of the parties differ and the parties cannot resolve
97 the differences or if any party fails to file a proposed parenting plan, upon motion of either
98 party and an opportunity for the parties to be heard, the court shall enter a temporary order
99 containing a parenting plan setting forth the arrangements specified in subsection 8 of this 100 section which will remain in effect until further order of the court. The temporary order

101 entered by the court shall not create a preference for the court in its adjudication of final 102 custody, child support or visitation.

103 10. The Missouri supreme court shall have guidelines for a parenting plan which may 104 be used by the parties pursuant to this section in any dissolution of marriage, legal separation
105 or modification proceeding involving issues of custody and visitation relating to the child.
106 Parenting plan guidelines shall be made available on the office of state courts administrator's 107 website.

108 11. The filing of a parenting plan for any child over the age of eighteen for whom 109 custody, visitation, or support is being established or modified by a court of competent
110 jurisdiction is not required. Nothing in this section shall be construed as precluding the filing
111 of a parenting plan upon agreement of the parties or if ordered to do so by the court for any 112 child over the age of eighteen for whom custody, visitation, or support is being established or 113 modified by a court of competent jurisdiction.
