

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

Second Regular Session, 102nd General Assembly

FIFTY-FOURTH DAY, WEDNESDAY, APRIL 10, 2024

The House met pursuant to adjournment.

Speaker Plocher in the Chair.

Prayer by Reverend Monsignor Robert A. Kurwicki, Chaplain.

“He that doeth the will of God abideth forever.” (John 2:17)

God of grace and God of glory, pour Your power upon us as we seek You in prayer. In dark days we have no light but Yours; in times of trouble, no refuge but in You; in periods of perplexity, no strength but the strength You bestow upon the believing heart. To You do we commit ourselves and our citizens, praying that in weakness we may be made strong, in restlessness may we find rest in You, and when confused we may have an understanding of Your awesome presence.

Grant to us the courage to walk in the way of Your commandments, the confidence to do Your will, and the consciousness that You are with us every moment of every day. So may we live as we pray and as we pray so may we live here in the People’s House.

And the House says, “Amen!”

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Journal of the fifty-third day was approved as printed by the following vote:

"3. (1) With respect to the replacement reliable electric generation required by subsection 2 of this section, adequate electric transmission lines shall be in place and the replacement reliable electric generation shall be fully operational concurrently with the closure of the existing electric generating plant, except where some or all of the replacement reliable electric generation utilizes some or all the interconnection facilities used by the existing electric generating power plant or where the existing electric generating power plant is closed as a result of an unexpected or unplanned cause or event. In the event that some or all of the replacement reliable electric generation utilizes some or all of the interconnection facilities utilized by the existing electric generating power plant, then such replacement facilities shall be fully operational within one hundred eighty days of the closure of the existing electric generating power plant. In the event that the existing electric generating power plant is closed as a result of an unexpected or unplanned cause or event, following process shall apply:

(a) Within one hundred twenty days after the event causing the closure occurs, the electrical corporation shall file an application with the commission outlining its plan to install replacement reliable electric generation. The application shall specify the generation technology the electrical corporation proposes to be used for the replacement, its estimated cost, and shall demonstrate that the replacement reliable electric generation's average accredited capacity is equal to or greater than the average accredited capacity of the closed plant according to the process outlined in subsection 2 of this section. Within one hundred eighty days of the application's filing, the commission shall either approve the electrical corporation's application or approve implementation of alternative reliable electric generation meeting the accreditation requirements of this section; and

(b) Promptly after issuance of the commission's order under paragraph (a) of this subdivision, the electrical corporation shall proceed and use all reasonable efforts to procure, build, and place into operation the approved alternative reliable generation.

(2) During any periods allowed by this subsection where the replacement reliable"; and

Further amend said bill and section, Page 3, Line 64, by inserting after all of said line the following:

"(3) An electrical corporation shall not enter into a voluntary or negotiated settlement with a third party that requires closure of an existing electric generating plant, unless the electrical corporation determines that such a settlement is in the best interest of its customers and would maintain electric reliability. Electrical corporations shall not enter into such a settlement in order to meet pollution reduction or other corporate or societal goals beyond those required by law."; and

Further amend said bill, page, and section, Line 68, by inserting after the word "the" the word "dispatchable"; and

Further amend said bill, page, and section, Line 74, by deleting the words "outside the state if it" and inserting in lieu thereof the words "in a state that neighbors Missouri if the generation"; and

PERFECTION OF HOUSE BILLS - INFORMAL

HCS HB 2064, relating to civil proceedings, was taken up by Representative Black.

On motion of Representative Black, the title of HCS HB 2064 was agreed to.

Representative Black offered House Amendment No. 1.

House Amendment No. 1

AMEND House Committee Substitute for House Bill No. 2064, Page 3, Section 193.265, Line 81, by inserting after the first instance of the word "attorney," the phrase "the secretary of state"; and

Further amend said bill, Page 24, Section 454.1050, Line 49, by inserting after said section and line the following:

"456.950. 1. As used in this section, "qualified spousal trust" means a trust:

- (1) The settlors of which are married to each other at the time of the creation of the trust; and
- (2) The terms of which provide that during the joint lives of the settlors or the life of the sole surviving settlor all property transferred to, or held by, the trustee are:
  - (a) Held and administered in one trust for the benefit of both settlors, which may be revocable by either settlor or both settlors while either or both are alive, and by one settlor after the death or incapacity of the other, and each settlor having the right to receive distributions of income or principal, whether mandatory or within the discretion of the trustee, from the entire trust for the joint lives of the settlors and for the survivor's life; or
  - (b) Held and administered in two or more separate shares of one trust for the benefit of each or both of the settlors, with the trust revocable by each settlor with respect to that settlor's separate share of that trust without the participation or consent of the other settlor, and each settlor having the right to receive distributions of income or principal, whether mandatory or within the discretion of the trustee, from that settlor's separate share for that settlor's life; or

(c) Held and administered under the terms and conditions contained in paragraphs (a) and (b) of this subdivision.

2. A qualified spousal trust may contain any other trust terms that are not inconsistent with the provisions of this section, including, without limitation, a discretionary power to distribute trust property to a person in addition to a settlor.

3. All property at any time held in a qualified spousal trust, without regard to how such property was titled prior to it being so held<sup>[5]</sup>:

(1) Shall have the same immunity from the claims of a separate creditor of either settlor as if such property were held outside the trust by the settlors as tenants by the entirety, unless otherwise provided in writing by the settlor or settlors who transferred such property to the trust, and such property shall be treated for that purpose, including without limitation, federal and state bankruptcy laws, as tenants by entirety property~~[-Property held in a qualified spousal trust];~~

(2) With the exception of any written financial obligations, written guarantees, or secured or unsecured transactions executed by the settlors and held in a qualified spousal trust, shall continue to be immune and exempt from attachment during the life of the surviving settlor to the extent the property was held in a qualified spousal trust prior to the death of the first settlor and remains in a qualified spousal trust. This includes any property appreciation; and

(3) Shall cease to receive immunity from the claims of creditors upon the dissolution of marriage of the settlors by a court.

4. As used in this section, "property" means any interest in any type of property held in a qualified spousal trust, the income thereon, and any property into which such interest, proceeds, or income may be converted.

5. Upon the death of each settlor, all property held by the trustee of the qualified spousal trust shall be distributed as directed by the then current terms of the governing instrument of such trust. Upon the death of the first settlor to die, if immediately prior to death the predeceased settlor's interest in the qualified spousal trust was then held or deemed to be held in such settlor's separate share, the property held in such settlor's separate share may pass into an irrevocable trust for the benefit of the surviving settlor or other beneficiary upon such terms as the governing instrument shall direct, including without limitation a spendthrift provision as provided in section 456.5-502. Property may be held in or transferred to a settlor's joint or separate share of a trust:

- (1) By designation under the current terms of the governing instrument of such trust;
- (2) According to the specific titling of property or other designation that refers to such joint or separate share of such trust; or
- (3) By designation to the trustee as the owner as provided in section 456.1-113.

6. The respective rights of settlors who are married to each other in any property for purposes of a dissolution of the settlors' marriage shall not be affected or changed by reason of the transfer of that property to, or its subsequent administration as an asset of, a qualified spousal trust during the marriage of the settlors, unless both settlors expressly agree otherwise in writing.

7. No transfer to a qualified spousal trust shall avoid or defeat the Missouri uniform fraudulent transfer act in chapter 428.

8. This section shall apply to all trusts which fulfill the criteria set forth in this section for a qualified spousal trust regardless of whether such trust was created before, on, or after August 28, 2011."; and

Further amend said bill, Page 44, Section 510.521, Line 2, by inserting after said section and line the following:

"537.025. 1. This section shall be known and may be cited as "Jaxx's Law".

2. For the purposes of any civil action in this state or for any civil action arising out of acts or omissions occurring within this state, including a wrongful death action, an unborn child shall not be considered an employee of a business located within this state, of a business conducting business within this state, or of a state agency of the state of Missouri. For purposes of this section, "unborn child" has the same meaning as provided under section 188.015.

537.104. 1. As used in this section, the following terms mean:

(1) "Commercial entity", includes corporations, limited liability companies, partnerships, limited partnerships, sole proprietorships, or other legally recognized entities;

(2) "Distribute", to issue, sell, give, provide, deliver, transfer, transmute, circulate, or disseminate by any means;

(3) "Internet", the international computer network of both federal and nonfederal interoperable packet-switched data networks;

(4) "Material harmful to minors", all of the following:

(a) Any material that the average person, applying contemporary community standards, would find taking the material as a whole and with respect to minors is designed to appeal to, or is designed to pander to, the prurient interest;

(b) Any of the following material that exploits, is devoted to, or principally consists of descriptions of actual, simulated, or animated display or depiction of any of the following, in a manner patently offensive with respect to minors:

a. Pubic hair, anus, vulva, genitals, or nipple of the female breast;

b. Touching, caressing, or fondling of nipples, breasts, buttocks, anuses, or genitals; or c. Sexual intercourse, masturbation, sodomy, bestiality, oral copulation, flagellation, excretory functions, exhibitions, or any other sexual act; and

(c) The material taken as a whole lacks serious literary, artistic, political, or scientific value for minors;

(5) "Minor", any person under eighteen years of age;

(6) "News-gathering organization", any of the following:

(a) An employee of a newspaper, news publication, or news source, printed or on an online or mobile platform, of current news and public interest, while operating as an employee as provided in this paragraph, who can provide documentation of such employment with the newspaper, news publication, or news source; or

(b) An employee of a radio broadcast station, television broadcast station, cable television operator, or wire service while operating as an employee as provided in this paragraph, who can provide documentation of such employment;

(7) "Publish", to communicate or make information available to another person or entity on a publicly available internet website;

(8) "Reasonable age verification methods", include verifying that the person seeking to access the material is eighteen years of age or older by using any of the following methods:

(a) Provide a digitized identification card; or

(b) Require the person attempting to access the material to comply with a commercial age verification system that verifies in one or more of the following ways:

a. Government-issued identification; or
b. Any commercially reasonable method that relies on public or private transactional data to verify the person attempting to access the information is at least eighteen years of age or older;

(9) "Substantial portion", more than thirty-three and one-third percent of total material on a website that meets the definition of material harmful to minors;

(10) "Transactional data", a sequence of information that documents an exchange, agreement, or transfer between an individual, commercial entity, or third party used for the purpose of satisfying a request or event. Transactional data can include, but is not limited to, records from mortgage, education, and employment entities.

2. (1) Any commercial entity that knowingly or intentionally publishes or distributes material harmful to minors on the internet from a website that contains a substantial portion of such material shall be held liable if the entity fails to perform reasonable age verification methods to verify the age of individuals attempting to access the material.

(2) Any commercial entity or third party that performs the required age verification shall not retain any identifying information of the individual after access has been granted to the material.

(3) (a) Any commercial entity that is found to have violated this section shall be liable to an individual for damages resulting from a minor accessing the material. Such damages shall include a minimum award of twenty thousand dollars for each violation and court costs and reasonable attorney's fees as ordered by the court.

(b) A commercial entity that is found to have knowingly retained identifying information of the individual after access has been granted to the individual shall be liable to the individual for damages resulting from retaining the identifying information. Such damages shall include a minimum award of twenty thousand dollars for each violation and court costs and reasonable attorney's fees as ordered by the court.

3. (1) The provisions of this section shall not apply to any bona fide news or public interest broadcast, website video, report, or event and shall not be construed to affect the rights of any news-gathering organizations.

(2) No internet service provider or its affiliates or subsidiaries, search engine, or cloud service provider shall be held to have violated the provisions of this section for providing access or connection to or from a website or other information or content on the internet or a facility, system, or network not under that provider's control, including transmission, downloading, storage, access software, or other to the extent such provider is not responsible for the creation of the content of the communication that constitutes material harmful to minors."; and

Further amend said bill, Pages 44-45, Section 537.106, Lines 1-25, by deleting said section and lines; and Further amend said bill by amending the title, enacting clause, and intersectional references accordingly.

House Amendment No. 1 was withdrawn.
