

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

Second Regular Session, 102nd General Assembly

FIFTY-EIGHTH DAY, WEDNESDAY, APRIL 17, 2024

The House met pursuant to adjournment.

Speaker Plocher in the Chair.

Prayer by Reverend Monsignor Robert A. Kurwicky, Chaplain.

It is more blessed to give than to receive. (Acts 20:35)

O God and Maker of us all, who has created us in Your own image and made us a living soul that we might live in fellowship with You, grant us Your blessings as we come to You in morning prayer. Make us great in thought, gentle in word, and generous in deed.

Remind us again that it is better to give than to receive, better to minister to others than to be ministered to ourselves, better to be governed by Your spirit than to be goaded by our own selfish desires and pleasures.

Bless all elected officials, and especially these representatives of our people. May the benediction of Your spirit abide in their hearts and lead them on the paths of righteousness, truth, and humility forever in our state. Bless our Missouri with favorable weather and the gift of a gentle rain for our farmers.

And the House says, "Amen!"

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Journal of the fifty-seventh day was approved as printed by the following vote:

On motion of Representative Diehl, HCS HB 2763 was adopted.

On motion of Representative Diehl, HCS HB 2763 was ordered perfected and printed.

HCS HB 2489, relating to employment practices, was taken up by Representative Murphy.

On motion of Representative Murphy, the title of HCS HB 2489 was agreed to.

Representative Mackey offered House Amendment No. 1.

House Amendment No. 1

AMEND House Committee Substitute for House Bill No. 2489, Page 2, Section 67.307, Line 31, by inserting after all of said section and line the following:

"191.265. Any noncompete clause of an employment contract between an employer and a physician licensed under chapter 334 that restricts the right of the physician to practice medicine in any geographic area for any period of time after the termination of such employment relationship shall be void and unenforceable, provided that nothing in this section shall render void or unenforceable the remaining provisions of any such employment contract."; and

Further amend said bill by amending the title, enacting clause, and intersectional references accordingly.

Representative Windham offered House Amendment No. 1 to House Amendment No. 1.

House Amendment No. 1

to

House Amendment No. 1

AMEND House Amendment No. 1 to House Committee Substitute for House Bill No. 2489, Page 1, Line 8, by inserting after all of said line the following:

"Further amend said bill, Page 11, Section 285.545, Line 144, by inserting after all of said section and line the following:

"290.180. 1. As used in this section, the following terms mean:

- (1) "Department", the department of labor and industrial relations;
- (2) "Meal period" or "meal break", an approved period of time in a nonwork status that interrupts a basic workday or a period of overtime work for the purpose of permitting employees to eat or engage in permitted personal activities, which may be paid or unpaid. A "meal period" shall provide bona fide breaks in the workday. If an employee is not excused from job duties, or if he or she is recalled to job duties, the employee is entitled to pay for compensable work, including work that is de minimis in nature.

2. Except as provided under subsection 3 of this section, every employer in this state shall allow its employees a meal period not less than thirty consecutive minutes for each eight-hour shift. In no event shall an employee be at the place of employment for a period longer than five and one-half hours without a meal break.

3. Nothing in this section requires the employer to pay the employee during the meal break.

4. This section does not apply to employment that is covered by a valid collective-bargaining agreement or other written agreement between an employer and employee. The department may grant exemptions to employers in cases where:

- (1) Requiring compliance would adversely affect public safety;
- (2) The duties of a position may only be performed by one employee;
- (3) The employer employs fewer than five employees on a shift at a single place of business provided the exemption shall apply only to the employees on such shift; or
- (4) The continuous nature of an employer's operations requires that employees be available to respond to urgent or unusual conditions at all times and such employees are compensated for meal periods.

5. Any employer who violates the provisions of this section shall be subject to a fine of not less than three hundred dollars, increased by an additional three hundred dollars for each subsequent violation, but not to exceed one thousand two hundred dollars for each violation.

6. The department may promulgate all necessary rules and regulations for the administration of this section. Any rule or portion of a rule, as that term is defined in section 536.010, that is created under the authority delegated in this section shall become effective only if it complies with and is subject to all of the provisions of chapter 536 and, if applicable, section 536.028. This section and chapter 536 are nonseverable and if any of the powers vested with the general assembly pursuant to chapter 536 to review, to delay the effective date, or to disapprove and annul a rule are subsequently held unconstitutional, then the grant of rulemaking authority and any rule proposed or adopted after August 28, 2024, shall be invalid and void."; and"; and

Further amend said bill by amending the title, enacting clause, and intersectional references accordingly.

Representative Windham moved that House Amendment No. 1 to House Amendment No. 1 be adopted.
