Dana Miller
Chief Clerk
Missouri House of Representatives
Missouri State Capitol

Dear Ms. Miller:

Pursuant to Article III, Section 30 of the Missouri Constitution, I do hereby object to the signing of SS SCS HCS HB 2010.

The House did not do its work by leaving so many needs in our state unfunded. These are costs all legislators know the state will need to pay for. By not correctly funding the budget in these areas, Missourians will need a supplemental budget bill passed. Most likely this will happen in a special legislative session before the end of the calendar year, yet after the primary election in August. The special session will result in a substantial unnecessary cost to Missouri taxpayers.

2072 Journal of the House

Examples include:

- $59M Cut to Consumer Directed Services
- $27M Cut to Home and Community Based Services
- $64M Cut providing home servicers to our developmentally disabled (DD) communities
- $113M Cut for shift differentiation for our DD providers
- $54M Cut for COVID-19 mitigation for our homeless and shelter communities

Please note said objection in the House Journal and annex it to SS SCS HCS HB 2010 to be considered by the Governor in connection therewith as mandated by Article III, Section 30.
