

HB 1752 -- ELECTRICAL TRANSMISSION LINES

SPONSOR: Pollitt

This bill requires statutory authorization from the General Assembly before any electrical corporation can begin construction of an electrical transmission line or any structure containing lines that when added together are capable of transmission of electricity in excess of 230 kilovolts.