

HB 1954 -- PRIVILEGED INFORMATION

SPONSOR: Cook

Currently, information and data obtained by a probation or parole officer is privileged information and not receivable in any court.

This bill modifies that provision to allow an exception for the receipt of this privileged information by a court for lawful criminal matters.

This bill is the same as HB 776 (2023).