

HB 2126 -- CUSTODIAL INTERROGATION OF A MINOR

SPONSOR: Mackey

This bill makes any oral, written, or sign language confession of a child, defined as someone who was under 18 years old at the time of the offense, made during a custodial interrogation inadmissible as evidence against the child if the person involved in the custodial interrogation knowingly engaged in deception.

This bill is similar to HB 792 (2023) and HB 2330 (2022).
