

HB 2137 -- PRETRIAL WITNESS PROTECTION SERVICES FUND

SPONSOR: Voss

Currently, any law enforcement agency may provide for the security of witnesses and others in criminal proceedings or investigations. This bill allows any prosecuting attorney's office to provide such security as well. The Department of Public Safety may authorize funds to be disbursed to prosecuting attorneys' offices for such offices to be able to provide security.