

HB 2161 -- SCHOOL BOARD VACANCIES

SPONSOR: McGaugh

Currently, school board vacancies in Kansas City public school district are filled by special election. This bill repeals that provision, filling such vacancies by appointment by members of the board.

Currently, school board vacancies in St. Louis City metropolitan school district are filled by appointment by the Mayor of St. Louis City. This bill repeals that provision, filling such vacancies by appointment by members of the board.
