

HB 2219 -- PERSONAL IDENTIFIABLE INFORMATION

SPONSOR: Buchheit-Courtway

Currently, a person commits the offense of unlawful posting of information over the Internet when he or she knowingly posts personally identifiable information of any person on the Internet intending to cause great bodily harm or death, or threatening to cause great bodily harm or death to such person.

This bill allows for the offense of unlawful posting of information over the Internet if the information posted is posted to intimidate or harass a person or to obtain financial gain from such person.

The offense of unlawful posting of certain information over the Internet in these instances results in a class E felony.
