

HB 2333 -- FORECLOSURE ON A PRINCIPAL RESIDENCE

SPONSOR: Lovasco

This bill prohibits foreclosure on a principle residence as specified in the bill for a lien of unpaid taxes or special assessments, but authorizes other methods of recovering the taxes or special assessments, including filing a lien on the principal residence, garnishing the principal residence owner's wages, or seizing the owner's state income tax refund.

This bill is similar to HB 645 (2023).
