

HB 2436 -- OFFENSE OF MAKING A TERRORIST THREAT IN THE SECOND DEGREE

SPONSOR: Banderman

Currently, the offense of making a terrorist threat in the second degree is a class E felony. This bill enhances the penalty to a class D felony if such offense causes death, bodily injury, or property damage.

This bill is similar to SB 1312 (2024).