

HB 2481 -- LIBRARY COLLECTIONS

SPONSOR: Ealy

This bill prohibits libraries receiving funds from the Federal government, State, or any political subdivision from banning or restricting access to any book or resource in its collection based on partisan or doctrinal disapproval.

This bill specifies that it does not mandate libraries to purchase or acquire specific books or resources.