

HB 2652 -- EDUCATION

SPONSOR: Hardwick

This bill prevents public school districts or charter schools from requiring a student, as a condition of attendance, to:

- (1) Receive a dose of messenger ribonucleic acid;
- (2) Receive treatments or procedures intended to edit or alter human deoxyribonucleic acid or the human genome; or
- (3) Have placed under the student's skin any mechanical or electronic device.