

HJR 104 -- ELECTIONS

SPONSOR: Baker

This resolution specifies that only citizens of the United States shall be entitled to vote in public elections.

The resolution specifies that all elections shall be by paper ballot, as well as any mechanical method prescribed by law.

This resolution mandates that voters shall have only a single vote for each issue or number of open seats to be voted on at an election.

The resolution provides that the person receiving the greatest number of votes at a primary election as a party candidate for an office shall be the only candidate for that party at the general election, unless removed or replaced as provided by law. The person receiving the greatest number of votes at the general election shall be declared the winner.

The resolution provides that voting machines shall be tested and certified as secure in accordance with federal standards prior to each election in which they will be used.

This proposed constitutional amendment will only go into effect if adopted by a vote of the people.

This bill is the same as HJR 66 (2023).
