

HJR 108 -- GENERAL ASSEMBLY MEMBER EMPLOYMENT

SPONSOR: Sharp (37)

Currently, while in office General Assembly members may not hold another office or be employed by the Federal government, state government, or municipal government. Upon voter approval, this Constitutional amendment adds teachers and substitute teachers to the list of exemptions for employment for members of the General Assembly.

This bill is the similar to HJR 10 (2023).