

HJR 130 -- GENERAL ASSEMBLY

SPONSOR: Woods

Upon voter approval, this Constitutional amendment would prohibit the General Assembly from amending or repealing any statutory measure submitted by initiative petition and approved by voters, unless:

- (1) Six years have passed;
- (2) The proposed change is approved by 3/4 of the members of both chambers; or
- (3) The proposed change is submitted to and approved by voters in a referendum.

This bill is similar to HJR 65 (2024).
