

HJR 180 -- RIGHT TO FOOD

SPONSOR: Thomas

Upon voter approval, this proposed Constitutional amendment guarantees the right to Missourians to exchange seed and grow, raise, harvest, produce, acquire, and consume the food of their choosing. It also specifies that they have the right to sell or donate excess food for the benefit of the greater community without liability as long as the individual makes the sale or donation in good faith.