Changing Section 221.407 removing from one eighth percent up to one half percent and replacing by up to one percent is a significant increase in tax. Citizens of the state are burdened enough by rising prices from everything to groceries to insurance. Government needs to allocate funds more efficiently to places of need instead of increasing the tax burden on the people.

A tax increase ceiling from 1/2 percent to 1% is too big a burden for the citizens. This does not abide by republican platform to not raises taxes.
