I support HCS 1672.If this HCS is read as proposed, then I support requiring the local prosecuting attorney to have probable cause to investigate a homeschool family. I also deeply support removing the currently optional declaration of enrollment (167.042) altogether. Schools have often misused this optional form. I myself have been threatened by my local school (Reeds Spring in 2008 or 2009) when I refused to sign the optional form. I was told it was required and that if I didn't sign it then they would call the sheriff on me. The school employees couldn't even understand the word "optional", even after it was pointed out to them. I had to hire a lawyer to cease and desist the harassment by the school to sign the form. This repeal would be a huge win for the homeschool community.

Parents do not need government permission or approval to educate their own children as they see fit. Additionally, Since the Public Schools do not see fit (in many instances) to fully inform parent of what they are "teaching" / indoctrinating the kids with, the parents have just as much - actually more - right to not inform the public schools or DESE of what they are teaching their kids, or even the fact that they are choosing to teach their own kids.

I am Opposed to abolishing the Annual Requirement of "Home Schoolers" to File Annually with their Local School District and the State Department of Elementary & Secondary Education. Both the District and State Department of Education NEED to know how each Missouri Student is being educated for compliance, planning and budgeting purposes. This Bill has now been taken over by Bishop Davidson from Mark Matthiesen, having a brand-new set of New Laws, New Meaning and New Home-School Education. I am against the Submittal of the House Committee Substitute at this Late Date of the Legislative Process in an attempt to ram-rod this Bill through the House of Representatives & General Assembly. There NEEDS to be hours of serious In-Depth Discussion and Debate by the Full Committee on Special Education Reform about these items related to "Home School Education," which is a choice for Missouri Families. WE, as State Government and the General Assembly NEED to ensure that each and every Missouri Child is being correctly educated to comply with State Educational Standards in Teaching adequate Curriculum. There NEEDS to be Checking for Compliance and Enforcement by the Office of County Prosecuting Attorney and the State Attorney General's Office, in addition to Missouri's Education Professionals of the Local School District and the Missouri Department of Elementary & Secondary Education. Again, we NEED to ensure that Missouri Children are being educated in good acceptable practices. To NOT educate a child in my opinion is welfare neglect of a child, by not enriching and educating your child in the correct and proper way.
