Good morning, I am praying that you will accept this bill that Rep Anderson has written for me and other St Louis Public School Retired Employees. I am an 83 year old retired St Louis Public School Teacher. I love children and love teaching. I retired in 2005 with a Master's of Education Degree and 33 yrs with 2, 727.00 dollars that was 19 years ago Hum, I'm still receiving $2,727.00 a month before deductions have been taken . Please help me and others like by giving us a COLA. Thanks, Rep Anderson for writing this Bill even though I am not in your District 77. I'm in District 70 now. Sincerely, Proud MRTA St Louis City Retired Public School Teacher, Erma Nevels

I retired from the St. Louis Public Schools in 2013 and has yet to receive a cost of living increase. The cost of living in 2024 is significantly higher than it was in 2013. That being said, any additional financial help would be greatly appreciated.

I very much hope our state reps will vote yes for HB2469. I have lived without a cola since 2006 and see my pension total value has decreased due to increased rising cost of daily living. A cola will mean a lot to me as well as other teachers. Thanks!!!

I am highly Opposed to this Bill and the $8,700,000-Million Price Tag to the State budget. This Bill is unfair to the other 417 Public School Districts. For additional Testimony, please review the House "Media" under the House Pension Committee to view my Public Testimony.
