This bill had unintended consequences that disenfranchised GOP voters rather than just dems, even in my own house. My husband, a registered GOP introvert, would NEVER attend a caucus. He didn't even get info about it. He, however, has not missed a presidential primary or general election since 1980. He didn't get the opportunity to use his voice through the ballot box to vote for Nikki Haley. I was grateful the Democrats figured out a way. The primary would restore order in the state and in my home. Further, primaries preserve the secret ballot and avoid some of the intimidation we heard about in the aftermath of the caucus.

Please vote to reinstate the presidential preference primary in Missouri. The primary is a much more inclusive process than the methods used this year, and it's important that more Missourians have a voice in selecting the parties' presidential candidates.

I strongly urge your yes vote for HB 2618 restoring the statewide presidential preference primary. The current party run primary is confusing, difficult to organize and inherently limiting in terms of voter participation. Missouri voters deserve better.
