Our neighboring states have already legalized it. It would bring in more tax money for our state. Right now I place my bets in Illinois.

Every year, millions of dollars leave Missouri when folks go to bet in Kansas, Iowa, or Illinois. I support this bill because the advent of sports betting in Missouri is inevitable, and every year we drag our heels, we fall further behind.

I often drive across the river to Illinois to place sports bets. The parking lot of the gas station in Columbia Illinois is usually packed with Missouri license plates with people staring down at their phones probably doing the same. It's a shame that all the money from these betters can't benefit our state. Stop being a third world country Missouri.

This is a terrible idea. Supporting our schools like the lottery has since voters were fleeced on that 30+ years ago. Sports betting is predatory. Same as pay day loans and the lottery. 95% of the commercials coming out of Kansas in KC MO show black betters having a lovely time. The lottery is the same way, mostly purchased by the lower educated and low incomes. These convenience store betting machines are the same evil. They are in the poorest small communities and draw people in poverty. I don't know your motivation for this bill but it certainly isn't well analyzed.
