Yes, I heartily agree these sexual predators need to be put away so that they can never destroy the lives of children and their families again. But I also believe that we need to seriously consider using the death penalty to get the attention of ALL violent criminals and put an end to the YMCA type activities in our prisons. TV, weight rooms, basketball courts, three meals a day, visitation rights, etc. Are you kidding me! I point you to El Salvador to look at what they've done to the criminal element in their country and see how they do justice. This country needs to learn a lesson from them.

The harm done to a child that has been sexually trafficked will affect them their entire life. It is fitting then, that the consequence for the offender should last their entire life.

I grew up closeted as a gay man in Memphis TN. I developed several mental health deficits because I wasn't able to be myself and engage with people how I wanted. Then one day I went to a drag show, and I was welcomed more openly than any Christian ever has. I learned what it means to support and help each other. As a community on the fringes of society, we have to support each other. And I need a state and local community/government that values us and supports us. This bill would directly harm lgbtqia+ people by dissolving the only support we have from our community

Charging or making criminal in any way, men and or women that dress or perform in "drag" is appalling. It is a freedom of expression and a very positive outlet for the people that participate in it. It has been one of the leading artistic performances that has helped me to be myself and outgoing and positive regardless of all of the bullying or shunning that I received throughout childhood by just being a nerd. I am a straight female and a lover of any type of performing art. Everyone views art through different eyes, but that does not make it wrong in any regard.

Drag queens will not and will never hurt children. We don't want children exposed to adult activities! We want the right to perform where belong. If the show is not sexual in nature, what is the harm seeing someone look pretty in makeup and wear a dress and sing and dance? It's never been about the children, or else you would protect them for habitual offenders. This is about hurting and tearing down queens and lgbt people. Do not try to hide behind your self righteous bigotry.
