 13 trier; or

 15 declare the punishment at death. If the trier is a jury it shall be so instructed.

 17 If the trier assesses and declares the punishment at death it shall, in its findings or 18 verdict, set out in writing the aggravating circumstance or circumstances listed in 20 trier is a jury it shall be instructed before the case is submitted that if it is unable to 21 decide or agree upon the punishment the court shall assess and declare the 22 punishment at life imprisonment without eligibility for probation, parole, or 23 release except by act of the governor or death. The court shall follow the same 24 procedure as set out in this section whenever it is required to determine 25 punishment for murder in the first degree.

26 5. Upon written agreement of the parties and with leave of the court, the 27 issue of the defendant's intellectual disability may be taken up by the court and

5 the trier shall consider all evidence which it finds to be in aggravation or 6 mitigation of punishment, including evidence received during the first stage of the 7 trial and evidence supporting any of the statutory aggravating or mitigating 8 circumstances set out in subsections 2 and 3 of this section. If the trier is a jury, it
