4 "143.124. 1. Other provisions of law to the contrary notwithstanding, for tax years ending
5 on or before December 31, 2006, the total amount of all annuities, pensions, or retirement 6 allowances above the amount of six thousand dollars annually provided by any law of this state, the 7 United States, or any other state to any person except as provided in subsection 4 of this section,
8 shall be subject to tax pursuant to the provisions of this chapter, in the same manner, to the same 9 extent and under the same conditions as any other taxable income received by the person receiving 10 it. For purposes of this section, "annuity, pension, retirement benefit, or retirement allowance" shall 11 be defined as an annuity, pension or retirement allowance provided by the United States, this state, 12 any other state or any political subdivision or agency or institution of this or any other state. For all 13 tax years beginning on or after January 1, 1998, for purposes of this section, annuity, pension or 14 retirement allowance shall be defined to include 401(k) plans, deferred compensation plans, self-15 employed retirement plans, also known as Keogh plans, annuities from a defined pension plan and 16 individual retirement arrangements, also known as IRAs, as described in the Internal Revenue Code, 17 but not including Roth IRAs, as well as an annuity, pension or retirement allowance provided by the 18 United States, this state, any other state or any political subdivision or agency or institution of this or 19 any other state. An individual taxpayer shall only be allowed a maximum deduction equal to the 20 amounts provided under this section for each taxpayer on the combined return.

21 2. For the period beginning July 1, 1989, and ending December 31, 1989, there shall be 22 subtracted from Missouri adjusted gross income for that period, determined pursuant to section 23 143.121, the first three thousand dollars of retirement benefits received by each taxpayer:

24 (1) If the taxpayer's filing status is single, head of household or qualifying widow(er) and 25 the taxpayer's Missouri adjusted gross income is less than twelve thousand five hundred dollars; or

26 (2) If the taxpayer's filing status is married filing combined and their combined Missouri 27 adjusted gross income is less than sixteen thousand dollars; or

28 (3) If the taxpayer's filing status is married filing separately and the taxpayer's Missouri 29 adjusted gross income is less than eight thousand dollars.

3. ~~[For the tax years beginning on or after January 1, 1990, but ending on or before December 31, 2006,]~~ There shall be subtracted from Missouri adjusted gross income, determined pursuant to section 143.121, ~~[a maximum of the first six thousand dollars of retirement benefits received by each taxpayer from sources other than privately funded sources, and for tax years beginning on or after January 1, 1998, there shall be subtracted from Missouri adjusted gross income, determined pursuant to section 143.121, a maximum of the first one thousand dollars of any retirement allowance received from any privately funded source for tax years beginning on or after January 1, 1998, but before January 1, 1999, and a maximum of the first three thousand dollars of any retirement allowance received from any privately funded source for tax years beginning on or after January 1, 1999, but before January 1, 2000, and a maximum of the first four thousand dollars of any retirement allowance received from any privately funded source for tax years beginning on or after January 1, 2000, but before January 1, 2001, and a maximum of the first five thousand dollars of any retirement allowance received from any privately funded source for tax years beginning on or after January 1, 2001, but before January 1, 2002, and]~~ a maximum of the first six thousand dollars of any retirement allowance received by each taxpayer from any privately funded sources for tax years beginning on or after January 1, 2002, but before January 1, 2026, and a maximum of the first twelve thousand dollars of any retirement allowance received from any privately funded sources for tax years beginning on or after January 1, 2026. A taxpayer shall be entitled to the maximum exemption provided by this subsection:

(1) If the taxpayer's filing status is single, head of household or qualifying widow(er) and the taxpayer's Missouri adjusted gross income is less than twenty-five thousand dollars for all tax years ending on or before December 31, 2025, and less than fifty thousand dollars for all tax years beginning on or after January 1, 2026; or

(2) If the taxpayer's filing status is married filing combined and their combined Missouri adjusted gross income is less than thirty-two thousand dollars for all tax years ending on or before December 31, 2025, and less than sixty-four thousand dollars for all tax years beginning on or after January 1, 2026; or

(3) If the taxpayer's filing status is married filing separately and the taxpayer's Missouri adjusted gross income is less than sixteen thousand dollars for all tax years ending on or before December 31, 2025, and less than thirty-two thousand six hundred dollars for all tax years beginning on or after January 1, 2026.

4. If a taxpayer's adjusted gross income exceeds the adjusted gross income ceiling for such taxpayer's filing status, as provided in subdivisions (1), (2) and (3) of subsection 3 of this section, such taxpayer shall be entitled to an exemption equal to the greater of zero or the maximum exemption provided in subsection 3 of this section reduced by one dollar for every dollar such taxpayer's income exceeds the ceiling for his or her filing status.

5. For purposes of this subsection, the term "maximum Social Security benefit available" shall mean thirty-two thousand five hundred dollars for the tax year beginning on or after January 1, 2007, and for each subsequent tax year such amount shall be increased by the percentage increase in

1 the Consumer Price Index for All Urban Consumers, or its successor index, as such index is defined
2 and officially reported by the United States Department of Labor, or its successor agency. For the 3 tax year beginning on or after January 1, 2007, but ending on or before December 31, 2007, there
4 shall be subtracted from Missouri adjusted gross income, determined pursuant to section 143.121, a 5 maximum of an amount equal to the greater of: six thousand dollars in retirement benefits received 6 from sources other than privately funded sources, to the extent such benefits are included in the 7 taxpayer's federal adjusted gross income; or twenty percent of the retirement benefits received from 8 sources other than privately funded sources in the tax year, but not to exceed the maximum Social 9 Security benefit available for such tax year. For the tax year beginning on or after January 1, 2008,
10 but ending on or before December 31, 2008, there shall be subtracted from Missouri adjusted gross 11 income, determined pursuant to section 143.121, a maximum of an amount equal to the greater of:
12 six thousand dollars in retirement benefits received from sources other than privately funded 13 sources, to the extent such benefits are included in the taxpayer's federal adjusted gross income; or 14 thirty-five percent of the retirement benefits received from sources other than privately funded
15 sources in the tax year, but not to exceed the maximum Social Security benefit available for such tax 16 year. For the tax year beginning on or after January 1, 2009, but ending on or before December 31,
17 2009, there shall be subtracted from Missouri adjusted gross income, determined pursuant to section 18 143.121, a maximum of an amount equal to the greater of: six thousand dollars in retirement 19 benefits received from sources other than privately funded sources, to the extent such benefits are 20 included in the taxpayer's federal adjusted gross income; or fifty percent of the retirement benefits 21 received from sources other than privately funded sources in the tax year, but not to exceed the 22 maximum Social Security benefit available for such tax year. For the tax year beginning on or after 23 January 1, 2010, but ending on or before December 31, 2010, there shall be subtracted from 24 Missouri adjusted gross income, determined pursuant to section 143.121, a maximum of an amount 25 equal to the greater of: six thousand dollars in retirement benefits received from sources other than 26 privately funded sources, to the extent such benefits are included in the taxpayer's federal adjusted 27 gross income; or sixty-five percent of the retirement benefits received from sources other than 28 privately funded sources in the tax year, but not to exceed the maximum Social Security benefit 29 available for such tax year. For the tax year beginning on or after January 1, 2011, but ending on or 30 before December 31, 2011, there shall be subtracted from Missouri adjusted gross income, 31 determined pursuant to section 143.121, a maximum of an amount equal to the greater of: six 32 thousand dollars in retirement benefits received from sources other than privately funded sources, to 33 the extent such benefits are included in the taxpayer's federal adjusted gross income; or eighty 34 percent of the retirement benefits received from sources other than privately funded sources in the 35 tax year, but not to exceed the maximum Social Security benefit available for such tax year. For all
36 tax years beginning on or after January 1, 2012, there shall be subtracted from Missouri adjusted 37 gross income, determined pursuant to section 143.121, a maximum of an amount equal to one
38 hundred percent of the retirement benefits received from sources other than privately funded sources
39 in the tax year, but not to exceed the maximum Social Security benefit available for such tax year.

1 For all tax years beginning on or before December 31, 2023, a taxpayer shall be entitled to the 2 maximum exemption provided by this subsection:

3 (1) If the taxpayer's filing status is married filing combined, and their combined Missouri
4 adjusted gross income is equal to or less than one hundred thousand dollars; or

5 (2) If the taxpayer's filing status is single, head of household, qualifying widow(er), or 6 married filing separately, and the taxpayer's Missouri adjusted gross income is equal to or less than 7 eighty-five thousand dollars.
8

9 For all tax years beginning on or after January 1, 2024, a taxpayer shall be entitled to the maximum 10 exemption provided by this subsection regardless of the taxpayer's filing status or the amount of the 11 taxpayer's Missouri adjusted gross income.

12 6. For all tax years beginning on or before December 31, 2023, if a taxpayer's adjusted gross 13 income exceeds the adjusted gross income ceiling for such taxpayer's filing status, as provided in 14 subdivisions (1) and (2) of subsection 5 of this section, such taxpayer shall be entitled to an 15 exemption, less any applicable reduction provided under subsection 7 of this section, equal to the 16 greater of zero or the maximum exemption provided in subsection 5 of this section reduced by one 17 dollar for every dollar such taxpayer's income exceeds the ceiling for his or her filing status.

18 7. For purposes of calculating the subtraction provided in subsection 5 of this section, such 19 subtraction shall be decreased by an amount equal to any Social Security benefit exemption 20 provided under section 143.125.

21 8. For purposes of this section, any Social Security benefits otherwise included in Missouri 22 adjusted gross income shall be subtracted; but Social Security benefits shall not be subtracted for 23 purposes of other computations pursuant to this chapter, and are not to be considered as retirement 24 benefits for purposes of this section.

25 9. The provisions of subdivisions (1) and (2) of subsection 3 of this section shall apply 26 during all tax years in which the federal Internal Revenue Code provides exemption levels for 27 calculation of the taxability of Social Security benefits that are the same as the levels in subdivisions 28 (1) and (2) of subsection 3 of this section. If the exemption levels for the calculation of the 29 taxability of Social Security benefits are adjusted by applicable federal law or regulation, the 30 exemption levels in subdivisions (1) and (2) of subsection 3 of this section shall be accordingly
31 adjusted to the same exemption levels.

32 10. The portion of a taxpayer's lump sum distribution from an annuity or other retirement
33 plan not otherwise included in Missouri adjusted gross income as calculated pursuant to this chapter
34 but subject to taxation under Internal Revenue Code Section 402 shall be taxed in an amount equal 35 to ten percent of the taxpayer's federal liability on such distribution for the same tax year.

36 11. For purposes of this section, retirement benefits received shall not include any 37 withdrawals from qualified retirement plans which are subsequently rolled over into another 38 retirement plan.

1 12. The exemptions provided for in this section shall not affect the calculation of the income
2 to be used to determine the property tax credit provided in sections 135.010 to 135.035.

3 13. The exemptions provided for in this section shall apply to any annuity, pension, or 4 retirement allowance as defined in subsection 1 of this section to the extent that such amounts are 5 included in the taxpayer's federal adjusted gross income and not otherwise deducted from the 6 taxpayer's federal adjusted gross income in the calculation of Missouri taxable income. This 7 subsection shall not apply to any individual who qualifies under federal guidelines to be one 8 hundred percent disabled."; and
