graduation from an accredited high school or its equivalent, and satisfactory evidence of completion of preprofessional education consisting of a minimum of sixty semester hours of college credits acceptable subjects leading towards the degree of bachelor of arts or bachelor of science from accredited college or university. They shall also furnish satisfactory evidence of having attend throughout at least four terms of thirty two weeks of actual instructions in each term and of having received a diploma from some reputable medical college or osteopathic college that enforce requirements of four terms of thirty two weeks for actual instruction in each term, including, addition to class work, such experience in operative and hospital work during the last two years instruction as is required by the American Medical Association and the American Osteopath Association before the college is approved and accredited as reputable. Any medical colle approved and accredited as reputable by the American Medical Association or the Liais Committee on Medical Education and any osteopathic college approved and accredited as reputable by the American Osteopathic Association is deemed to have complied with the requirements of the subsection]: (1) Evidence of good moral character by submitting to a criminal background check provided in section 43.540; (2) A diploma and academic transcripts from a school accredited by the Liaison Committed on Medical Education, the Commission on Osteopathic College Accreditation, the Education Commission for Foreign Medical Graduates (ECFMG), or a similar accrediting agency; and (3) A certificate demonstrating that the applicant has satisfied the requirements of sections as surgeon, the board, by rule and regulation, may accept the certificate of the National Board	AMEND Senate Substitute for Senate Bill No. 61, Pages 9-11, Section 334.031, Lines 1-66, by deleting all of said lines and inserting in lieu thereof the following: "334.031. 1. Candidates for licenses as physicians and surgeons shall furnish [satisfact-evidence of their good moral character, and their preliminary qualifications, to wit: a certificate graduation from an accredited high school or its equivalent, and satisfactory evidence of complet of preprofessional education consisting of a minimum of sixty semester hours of college credits acceptable subjects leading towards the degree of bachelor of arts or bachelor of science from accredited college or university. They shall also furnish satisfactory evidence of having attent throughout at least four terms of thirty two weeks of actual instructions in each term and of hav received a diploma from some reputable medical college or osteopathic college that enfor requirements of four terms of thirty two weeks for actual instruction in each term, including, addition to class work, such experience in operative and hospital work during the last two years instruction as is required by the American Medical Association and the American Osteopat Association before the college is approved and accredited as reputable by the American Medical Association or the Liais Committee on Medical Education and any osteopathic college approved and accredited as reputable by the American Medical Association or the Liais Committee on Medical Education and any osteopathic college approved and accredited as reputable by the American Medical Association or the Liais (1) Evidence of good moral character by submitting to a criminal background check provided in section 43.540; (2) A diploma and academic transcripts from a school accredited by the Liaison Commit
"334.031. 1. Candidates for licenses as physicians and surgeons shall furnish [satisfactor evidence of their good moral character, and their preliminary qualifications, to wit: a certificate graduation from an accredited high school or its equivalent, and satisfactory evidence of completion of preprofessional education consisting of a minimum of sixty semester hours of college credits acceptable subjects leading towards the degree of bachelor of arts or bachelor of science from accredited college or university. They shall also furnish satisfactory evidence of having attend throughout at least four terms of thirty two weeks of actual instructions in each term and of having received a diploma from some reputable medical college or osteopathic college that enfore requirements of four terms of thirty two weeks for actual instruction in each term, including, addition to class work, such experience in operative and hospital work during the last two years instruction as is required by the American Medical Association and the American Osteopath Association before the college is approved and accredited as reputable. Any medical colleapproved and accredited as reputable by the American Medical Association or the Liais Committee on Medical Education and any osteopathic college approved and accredited as reputable by the American Osteopathic Association is deemed to have complied with the requirements of the subsection]: (1) Evidence of good moral character by submitting to a criminal background check provided in section 43.540; (2) A diploma and academic transcripts from a school accredited by the Liaison Committe on Medical Education, the Commission on Osteopathic College Accreditation, the Education Commission for Foreign Medical Graduates (ECFMG), or a similar accrediting agency; and (3) A certificate demonstrating that the applicant has satisfied the requirements of section 334.035. 2. In determining the qualifications necessary for licensure as a qualified physician as surgeon, the board, by rule and regulation,	"334.031. 1. Candidates for licenses as physicians and surgeons shall furnish [satisfact evidence of their good moral character, and their preliminary qualifications, to wit: a certificate graduation from an accredited high school or its equivalent, and satisfactory evidence of complet of preprofessional education consisting of a minimum of sixty semester hours of college credits acceptable subjects leading towards the degree of bachelor of arts or bachelor of science from accredited college or university. They shall also furnish satisfactory evidence of having attend throughout at least four terms of thirty two weeks of actual instructions in each term and of hav received a diploma from some reputable medical college or osteopathic college that enfor requirements of four terms of thirty two weeks for actual instruction in each term, including, addition to class work, such experience in operative and hospital work during the last two years instruction as is required by the American Medical Association and the American Osteopat Association before the college is approved and accredited as reputable. Any medical college approved and accredited as reputable by the American Medical Association or the Liais Committee on Medical Education and any osteopathic college approved and accredited as reputable by the American Osteopathic Association is deemed to have complied with the requirements of t subsection]: (1) Evidence of good moral character by submitting to a criminal background check provided in section 43.540;
evidence of their good moral character, and their preliminary qualifications, to wit: a certificate graduation from an accredited high school or its equivalent, and satisfactory evidence of completion of preprofessional education consisting of a minimum of sixty semester hours of college credits acceptable subjects leading towards the degree of bachelor of arts or bachelor of science from accredited college or university. They shall also furnish satisfactory evidence of having attend throughout at least four terms of thirty two weeks of actual instructions in each term and of having received a diploma from some reputable medical college or osteopathic college that enforce requirements of four terms of thirty-two weeks for actual instruction in each term, including, addition to class work, such experience in operative and hospital work during the last two years instruction as is required by the American Medical Association and the American Osteopath Association before the college is approved and accredited as reputable. Any medical colleapproved and accredited as reputable by the American Medical Association or the Liais Committee on Medical Education and any osteopathic college approved and accredited as reputable by the American Osteopathic Association is deemed to have complied with the requirements of the subsection]: (1) Evidence of good moral character by submitting to a criminal background check provided in section 43.540; (2) A diploma and academic transcripts from a school accredited by the Liaison Committ on Medical Education, the Commission on Osteopathic College Accreditation, the Education Commission for Foreign Medical Graduates (ECFMG), or a similar accrediting agency; and (3) A certificate demonstrating that the applicant has satisfied the requirements of section 334.035. 2. In determining the qualifications necessary for licensure as a qualified physician as surgeon, the board, by rule and regulation, may accept the certificate of the National Board Medical Examiners of the United States, ch	evidence of their good moral character, and their preliminary qualifications, to wit: a certificate graduation from an accredited high school or its equivalent, and satisfactory evidence of complet of preprofessional education consisting of a minimum of sixty semester hours of college credits acceptable subjects leading towards the degree of bachelor of arts or bachelor of science from accredited college or university. They shall also furnish satisfactory evidence of having attend throughout at least four terms of thirty two weeks of actual instructions in each term and of hav received a diploma from some reputable medical college or osteopathic college that enfor requirements of four terms of thirty two weeks for actual instruction in each term, including, addition to class work, such experience in operative and hospital work during the last two years instruction as is required by the American Medical Association and the American Osteopath Association before the college is approved and accredited as reputable. Any medical college approved and accredited as reputable by the American Medical Association or the Liais Committee on Medical Education and any osteopathic college approved and accredited as reputable by the American Osteopathic Association is deemed to have complied with the requirements of t subsection]: (1) Evidence of good moral character by submitting to a criminal background check provided in section 43.540; (2) A diploma and academic transcripts from a school accredited by the Liaison Commit accredited college or university. They shall also furnish satisfactory evidence of having attend throughout at least four terms of thirty two weeks of actual instructions in each term and of having received a diploma from some reputable medical college or osteopathic college that enforce requirements of four terms of thirty two weeks for actual instruction in each term, including, addition to class work, such experience in operative and hospital work during the last two years instruction as is required by the American Medical Association and the American Osteopath Association before the college is approved and accredited as reputable. Any medical colleapproved and accredited as reputable by the American Medical Association or the Liaise Committee on Medical Education and any osteopathic college approved and accredited as reputable by the American Osteopathic Association is deemed to have complied with the requirements of the subsection]: (1) Evidence of good moral character by submitting to a criminal background check provided in section 43.540; (2) A diploma and academic transcripts from a school accredited by the Liaison Committeen Medical Education, the Commission on Osteopathic College Accreditation, the Education Commission for Foreign Medical Graduates (ECFMG), or a similar accrediting agency; and (3) A certificate demonstrating that the applicant has satisfied the requirements of section 334.035. 2. In determining the qualifications necessary for licensure as a qualified physician as surgeon, the board, by rule and regulation, may accept the certificate of the National Board Medical Examiners of the United States, chartered pursuant to the laws of the District of Columb	accredited college or university. They shall also furnish satisfactory evidence of having attend throughout at least four terms of thirty-two weeks of actual instructions in each term and of have received a diploma from some reputable medical college or osteopathic college that enfor requirements of four terms of thirty-two weeks for actual instruction in each term, including, addition to class work, such experience in operative and hospital work during the last two years instruction as is required by the American Medical Association and the American Osteopat Association before the college is approved and accredited as reputable. Any medical colleapproved and accredited as reputable by the American Medical Association or the Liais Committee on Medical Education and any osteopathic college approved and accredited as reputably the American Osteopathic Association is deemed to have complied with the requirements of the subsection]: (1) Evidence of good moral character by submitting to a criminal background check provided in section 43.540; (2) A diploma and academic transcripts from a school accredited by the Liaison Commit received a diploma from some reputable medical college or osteopathic college that enforce requirements of four terms of thirty two weeks for actual instruction in each term, including, addition to class work, such experience in operative and hospital work during the last two years instruction as is required by the American Medical Association and the American Osteopath Association before the college is approved and accredited as reputable. Any medical collegapproved and accredited as reputable by the American Medical Association or the Liaise Committee on Medical Education and any osteopathic college approved and accredited as reputable by the American Osteopathic Association is deemed to have complied with the requirements of the subsection]: (1) Evidence of good moral character by submitting to a criminal background check provided in section 43.540; (2) A diploma and academic transcripts from a school accredited by the Liaison Committee on Medical Education, the Commission on Osteopathic College Accreditation, the Education Commission for Foreign Medical Graduates (ECFMG), or a similar accrediting agency; and (3) A certificate demonstrating that the applicant has satisfied the requirements of section 334.035. 2. In determining the qualifications necessary for licensure as a qualified physician as surgeon, the board, by rule and regulation, may accept the certificate of the National Board Medical Examiners of the United States, chartered pursuant to the laws of the District of Columb	received a diploma from some reputable medical college or osteopathic college that enfor requirements of four terms of thirty two weeks for actual instruction in each term, including, addition to class work, such experience in operative and hospital work during the last two years instruction as is required by the American Medical Association and the American Osteopat Association before the college is approved and accredited as reputable. Any medical collegation and accredited as reputable by the American Medical Association or the Liaise Committee on Medical Education and any osteopathic college approved and accredited as reputable by the American Osteopathic Association is deemed to have complied with the requirements of the subsection]: (1) Evidence of good moral character by submitting to a criminal background check provided in section 43.540; (2) A diploma and academic transcripts from a school accredited by the Liaison Commit instruction as is required by the American Medical Association and the American Osteopath Association before the college is approved and accredited as reputable. Any medical colleapproved and accredited as reputable by the American Medical Association or the Liaise Committee on Medical Education and any osteopathic college approved and accredited as reputable by the American Osteopathic Association is deemed to have complied with the requirements of the subsection]: (1) Evidence of good moral character by submitting to a criminal background check provided in section 43.540; (2) A diploma and academic transcripts from a school accredited by the Liaison Committee on Medical Education, the Commission on Osteopathic College Accreditation, the Education Commission for Foreign Medical Graduates (ECFMG), or a similar accrediting agency; and (3) A certificate demonstrating that the applicant has satisfied the requirements of section 334.035. 2. In determining the qualifications necessary for licensure as a qualified physician as surgeon, the board, by rule and regulation, may accept the certificate of the National Board Medical Examiners of the United States, chartered pursuant to the laws of the District of Columb	Association as is required by the American Medical Association and the American Osteopat Association before the college is approved and accredited as reputable. Any medical college approved and accredited as reputable by the American Medical Association or the Liais Committee on Medical Education and any osteopathic college approved and accredited as reputably the American Osteopathic Association is deemed to have complied with the requirements of the subsection of good moral character by submitting to a criminal background check provided in section 43.540; (2) A diploma and academic transcripts from a school accredited by the Liaison Commit approved and accredited as reputable by the American Medical Association or the Liaise Committee on Medical Education and any osteopathic college approved and accredited as reputable by the American Osteopathic Association is deemed to have complied with the requirements of the subsection]: (1) Evidence of good moral character by submitting to a criminal background check provided in section 43.540; (2) A diploma and academic transcripts from a school accredited by the Liaison Committee on Medical Education, the Commission on Osteopathic College Accreditation, the Education Commission for Foreign Medical Graduates (ECFMG), or a similar accrediting agency; and (3) A certificate demonstrating that the applicant has satisfied the requirements of section 334.035. 2. In determining the qualifications necessary for licensure as a qualified physician as surgeon, the board, by rule and regulation, may accept the certificate of the National Board Medical Examiners of the United States, chartered pursuant to the laws of the District of Columb	approved and accredited as reputable by the American Medical Association or the Liais Committee on Medical Education and any osteopathic college approved and accredited as reputa by the American Osteopathic Association is deemed to have complied with the requirements of t subsection]: (1) Evidence of good moral character by submitting to a criminal background check provided in section 43.540; (2) A diploma and academic transcripts from a school accredited by the Liaison Commit
Committee on Medical Education and any osteopathic college approved and accredited as reputable by the American Osteopathic Association is deemed to have complied with the requirements of the subsection]: (1) Evidence of good moral character by submitting to a criminal background check provided in section 43.540; (2) A diploma and academic transcripts from a school accredited by the Liaison Committee on Medical Education, the Commission on Osteopathic College Accreditation, the Education Commission for Foreign Medical Graduates (ECFMG), or a similar accrediting agency; and (3) A certificate demonstrating that the applicant has satisfied the requirements of section 334.035. 2. In determining the qualifications necessary for licensure as a qualified physician as surgeon, the board, by rule and regulation, may accept the certificate of the National Board Medical Examiners of the United States, chartered pursuant to the laws of the District of Columb	Committee on Medical Education and any osteopathic college approved and accredited as reputa by the American Osteopathic Association is deemed to have complied with the requirements of t subsection]: (1) Evidence of good moral character by submitting to a criminal background check provided in section 43.540; (2) A diploma and academic transcripts from a school accredited by the Liaison Commit
(1) Evidence of good moral character by submitting to a criminal background check provided in section 43.540; (2) A diploma and academic transcripts from a school accredited by the Liaison Committee on Medical Education, the Commission on Osteopathic College Accreditation, the Education Commission for Foreign Medical Graduates (ECFMG), or a similar accrediting agency; and (3) A certificate demonstrating that the applicant has satisfied the requirements of section 334.035. 2. In determining the qualifications necessary for licensure as a qualified physician as surgeon, the board, by rule and regulation, may accept the certificate of the National Board Medical Examiners of the United States, chartered pursuant to the laws of the District of Columb	(1) Evidence of good moral character by submitting to a criminal background check provided in section 43.540; (2) A diploma and academic transcripts from a school accredited by the Liaison Commit
(1) Evidence of good moral character by submitting to a criminal background check provided in section 43.540; (2) A diploma and academic transcripts from a school accredited by the Liaison Committed on Medical Education, the Commission on Osteopathic College Accreditation, the Education Commission for Foreign Medical Graduates (ECFMG), or a similar accrediting agency; and (3) A certificate demonstrating that the applicant has satisfied the requirements of section 334.035. 2. In determining the qualifications necessary for licensure as a qualified physician as surgeon, the board, by rule and regulation, may accept the certificate of the National Board Medical Examiners of the United States, chartered pursuant to the laws of the District of Columbia.	 (1) Evidence of good moral character by submitting to a criminal background check provided in section 43.540; (2) A diploma and academic transcripts from a school accredited by the Liaison Commit
 (2) A diploma and academic transcripts from a school accredited by the Liaison Committed on Medical Education, the Commission on Osteopathic College Accreditation, the Education Commission for Foreign Medical Graduates (ECFMG), or a similar accrediting agency; and (3) A certificate demonstrating that the applicant has satisfied the requirements of section 334.035. 2. In determining the qualifications necessary for licensure as a qualified physician as surgeon, the board, by rule and regulation, may accept the certificate of the National Board Medical Examiners of the United States, chartered pursuant to the laws of the District of Columbs. 	(2) A diploma and academic transcripts from a school accredited by the Liaison Commit on Medical Education, the Commission on Osteopathic College Accreditation, the Education Commission for Foreign Medical Graduates (ECFMG), or a similar accrediting agency; and (3) A certificate demonstrating that the applicant has satisfied the requirements of section 334.035. 2. In determining the qualifications necessary for licensure as a qualified physician as surgeon, the board, by rule and regulation, may accept the certificate of the National Board Medical Examiners of the United States, chartered pursuant to the laws of the District of Columbia.
 (3) A certificate demonstrating that the applicant has satisfied the requirements of sections 334.035. 2. In determining the qualifications necessary for licensure as a qualified physician as surgeon, the board, by rule and regulation, may accept the certificate of the National Board Medical Examiners of the United States, chartered pursuant to the laws of the District of Columbs.
 334.035. 2. In determining the qualifications necessary for licensure as a qualified physician as surgeon, the board, by rule and regulation, may accept the certificate of the National Board Medical Examiners of the United States, chartered pursuant to the laws of the District of Columbs. 	Commission for Foreign Medical Graduates (ECFMG), or a similar accrediting agency; and
2. In determining the qualifications necessary for licensure as a qualified physician as surgeon, the board, by rule and regulation, may accept the certificate of the National Board Medical Examiners of the United States, chartered pursuant to the laws of the District of Columbs	***
surgeon, the board, by rule and regulation, may accept the certificate of the National Board Medical Examiners of the United States, chartered pursuant to the laws of the District of Columb Medical Examiners of the United States, chartered pursuant to the laws of the District of Columb
-
	-

Action Taken_

_ Date _____

the laws of the state of Indiana, or of the Licentiate of the Medical Counsel of Canada (LMCC) in lieu of and as equivalent to its own professional examination. Every applicant for a license on the basis of such certificate, upon making application showing necessary qualifications as provided in subsection 1 of this section, shall be required to pay the same fee required of applicants to take the examination before the board.

1 2

3

4

5

6

7

8

9

10

11

12

15

- 3. The board may require applicants to list all licenses to practice as a physician currently or previously held in any other state, territory, or country and to disclose any past or pending investigations, discipline, or sanctions against each such license.
- 4. In addition to the criminal background screening required by this section, the board may obtain a report on the applicant from the National Practitioner Data Bank or the Federation of State Medical Boards."; and

Further amend said bill, Pages 11-12, Section 334.035, Lines 1-28, by removing all of said section and lines from the bill; and Further amend said bill by amending the title, enacting clause, and intersectional references accordingly.