1 2. A taxpayer shall be allowed to claim a tax credit against the taxpayer's state tax liability, 2 in an amount equal to fifty percent of the amount such taxpayer contributed to a maternity home for 3 all fiscal years ending on or before June 30, 2022, and seventy percent of the amount such taxpayer
4 contributed to a maternity home for all fiscal years beginning on or after July 1, 2022, but ending on 5 or before June 30, 2026. For all fiscal years beginning on or after July 1, 2026, a taxpayer shall be 6 allowed to claim a tax credit against the taxpayer's state tax liability in an amount equal to one 7 hundred percent of the amount such taxpayer contributed to a maternity home.

8 3. The amount of the tax credit claimed shall not exceed the amount of the taxpayer's state 9 tax liability for the tax year that the credit is claimed, and such taxpayer shall not be allowed to 10 claim a tax credit in excess of fifty thousand dollars per tax year. However, any tax credit that 11 cannot be claimed in the tax year the contribution was made may be carried over only to the next 12 succeeding tax year. No tax credit issued under this section shall be assigned, transferred, or sold.

13 4. Except for any excess credit which is carried over pursuant to subsection 3 of this section,
14 a taxpayer shall not be allowed to claim a tax credit unless the total amount of such taxpayer's 15 contribution or contributions to a maternity home or homes in such taxpayer's tax year has a value of 16 at least one hundred dollars.

17 5. The director of the department of social services shall determine, at least annually, which 18 facilities in this state may be classified as maternity homes. The director of the department of social 19 services may require of a facility seeking to be classified as a maternity home whatever information 20 is reasonably necessary to make such a determination. The director of the department of social 21 services shall classify a facility as a maternity home if such facility meets the definition set forth in 22 subsection 1 of this section.

23 6. The director of the department of social services shall establish a procedure by which a 24 taxpayer can determine if a facility has been classified as a maternity home, and by which such 25 taxpayer can then contribute to such maternity home and claim a tax credit. Maternity homes shall 26 be permitted to decline a contribution from a taxpayer. The cumulative amount of tax credits which 27 may be claimed by all the taxpayers contributing to maternity homes in any one fiscal year shall not 28 exceed two million dollars for all fiscal years ending on or before June 30, 2014, and two million 29 five hundred thousand dollars for all fiscal years beginning on or after July 1, 2014, and ending on 30 or before June 30, 2019, and three million five hundred thousand dollars for all fiscal years
31 beginning on or after July 1, 2019, and ending on or before June 30, 2022. For all fiscal years
32 beginning on or after July 1, 2022, there shall be no limit imposed on the cumulative amount of tax 33 credits that may be claimed by all taxpayers contributing to maternity homes under the provisions of 34 this section. Tax credits shall be issued in the order contributions are received. If the amount of tax 35 credits redeemed in a fiscal year is less than the cumulative amount authorized under this

39 social services shall establish a procedure by which, from the beginning of the fiscal year until some point in time later in the fiscal year to be determined by the director of the department of social services, the cumulative amount of tax credits are equally apportioned among all facilities classified as maternity homes. If a maternity home fails to use all, or some percentage to be determined by the director of the department of social services, of its apportioned tax credits during this predetermined period of time, the director of the department of social services may reapportion these unused tax credits to those maternity homes that have used all, or some percentage to be determined by the director of the department of social services, of their apportioned tax credits during this predetermined period of time. The director of the department of social services may establish more than one period of time and reapportion more than once during each fiscal year. To the maximum extent possible, the director of the department of social services shall establish the procedure described in this subsection in such a manner as to ensure that taxpayers can claim all the tax credits possible up to the cumulative amount of tax credits available for the fiscal year.

8. This section shall become effective January 1, 2000, and shall apply to all tax years after December 31, 1999.

4 2026, a taxpayer shall be allowed to claim a tax credit against the taxpayer's state tax liability in an

10 tax liability for the tax year for which the credit is claimed, and such taxpayer shall not be allowed

31 9. The department shall establish a procedure by which, from the beginning of the fiscal 32 year until some point in time later in the fiscal year to be determined by the department, the 33 cumulative amount of tax credits are equally apportioned among all entities classified as diaper 34 banks. If a diaper bank fails to use all, or some percentage to be determined by the department, of 35 its apportioned tax credits during this predetermined period of time, the department may reapportion 36 such unused tax credits to diaper banks that have used all, or some percentage to be determined by 37 the department, of their apportioned tax credits during this predetermined period of time. The 38 department may establish multiple periods each fiscal year and reapportion accordingly. To the 39 maximum extent possible, the department shall establish the procedure described under this subsection in such a manner as to ensure that taxpayers can claim as many of the tax credits as possible, up to the cumulative limit created under subsection 8 of this section.
