

House _____ Amendment NO. _____

Offered By

1 AMEND House Committee Substitute for House Bill No. 798, Page 1, Section A, Line 3, by 2 inserting after all of the said section and line the following:

4 "135.600. 1. As used in this section, the following terms shall mean:

5 (1) "Contribution", a donation of cash, stock, bonds or other marketable securities, or real 6 property;

7 (2) "Maternity home", a residential facility located in this state:

8 (a) Established for the purpose of providing housing and assistance to pregnant women who 9 are carrying their pregnancies to term;

10 (b) That does not perform, induce, or refer for abortions and that does not hold itself out as 11 performing, inducing, or referring for abortions;

12 (c) That provides services at no cost to clients; and 13 (d) That is exempt from income taxation under the United States Internal Revenue Code;

14 (3) "State tax liability", in the case of a business taxpayer, any liability incurred by such 15 taxpayer pursuant to the provisions of chapter 143, chapter 147, chapter 148, and chapter 153, 16 exclusive of the provisions relating to the withholding of tax as provided for in sections 143.191 to 17 143.265, and related provisions, and in the case of an individual taxpayer, any liability incurred by 18 such taxpayer pursuant to the provisions of chapter 143;

19 (4) "Taxpayer", a person, firm, a partner in a firm, corporation or a shareholder in an S 20 corporation doing business in the state of Missouri and subject to the state income tax imposed by 21 the provisions of chapter 143, including any [charitable] organization which is exempt from federal 22 income tax and whose Missouri unrelated business taxable income, if any, would be subject to the 23 state income tax imposed under chapter 143, or a corporation subject to the annual corporation 24 franchise tax imposed by the provisions of chapter 147, or an insurance company paying an annual 25 tax on its gross premium receipts in this state, or other financial institution paying taxes to the state 26 of Missouri or any political subdivision of this state pursuant to the provisions of chapter 148, or an 27 express company which pays an annual tax on its gross receipts in this state pursuant to chapter 153, 28 or an individual subject to the state income tax imposed by the provisions of chapter 143.

29 2. A taxpayer shall be allowed to claim a tax credit against the taxpayer's state tax liability, 30 in an amount equal to fifty percent of the amount such taxpayer contributed to a maternity home for

Action Taken _____ Date _____

1 all fiscal years ending on or before June 30, 2022, and seventy percent of the amount such taxpayer 2 contributed to a maternity home for all fiscal years beginning on or after July 1, 2022, but ending on 3 or before June 30, 2026. For all fiscal years beginning on or after July 1, 2026, a taxpayer shall be 4 allowed to claim a tax credit against the taxpayer's state tax liability in an amount equal to one 5 hundred percent of the amount such taxpayer contributed to a maternity home.

6 3. The amount of the tax credit claimed shall not exceed the amount of the taxpayer's state 7 tax liability for the tax year that the credit is claimed, and such taxpayer shall not be allowed to 8 claim a tax credit in excess of fifty thousand dollars per tax year. However, any tax credit that 9 cannot be claimed in the tax year the contribution was made may be carried over only to the next 10 succeeding tax year. No tax credit issued under this section shall be assigned, transferred, or sold.

11 4. Except for any excess credit which is carried over pursuant to subsection 3 of this section, 12 a taxpayer shall not be allowed to claim a tax credit unless the total amount of such taxpayer's 13 contribution or contributions to a maternity home or homes in such taxpayer's tax year has a value of 14 at least one hundred dollars.

15 5. The director of the department of social services shall determine, at least annually, which 16 facilities in this state may be classified as maternity homes. The director of the department of social 17 services may require of a facility seeking to be classified as a maternity home whatever information 18 is reasonably necessary to make such a determination. The director of the department of social 19 services shall classify a facility as a maternity home if such facility meets the definition set forth in 20 subsection 1 of this section.

21 6. The director of the department of social services shall establish a procedure by which a 22 taxpayer can determine if a facility has been classified as a maternity home, and by which such 23 taxpayer can then contribute to such maternity home and claim a tax credit. Maternity homes shall 24 be permitted to decline a contribution from a taxpayer. The cumulative amount of tax credits which 25 may be claimed by all the taxpayers contributing to maternity homes in any one fiscal year shall not 26 exceed two million dollars for all fiscal years ending on or before June 30, 2014, and two million 27 five hundred thousand dollars for all fiscal years beginning on or after July 1, 2014, and ending on 28 or before June 30, 2019, and three million five hundred thousand dollars for all fiscal years
29 beginning on or after July 1, 2019, and ending on or before June 30, 2022. For all fiscal years
30 beginning on or after July 1, 2022, there shall be no limit imposed on the cumulative amount of tax 31 credits that may be claimed by all taxpayers contributing to maternity homes under the provisions of 32 this section. Tax credits shall be issued in the order contributions are received. If the amount of tax 33 credits redeemed in a fiscal year is less than the cumulative amount authorized under this 34 subsection, the difference shall be carried over to a subsequent fiscal year or years and shall be 35 added to the cumulative amount of tax credits that may be authorized in that fiscal year or years.

36 7. For all fiscal years ending on or before June 30, 2022, the director of the department of 37 social services shall establish a procedure by which, from the beginning of the fiscal year until some 38 point in time later in the fiscal year to be determined by the director of the department of social 39 services, the cumulative amount of tax credits are equally apportioned among all facilities classified as maternity homes. If a maternity home fails to use all, or some percentage to be determined by the director of the department of social services, of its apportioned tax credits during this predetermined period of time, the director of the department of social services may reapportion these unused tax credits to those maternity homes that have used all, or some percentage to be determined by the director of the department of social services, of their apportioned tax credits during this predetermined period of time. The director of the department of social services may establish more than one period of time and reapportion more than once during each fiscal year. To the maximum extent possible, the director of the department of social services shall establish the procedure described in this subsection in such a manner as to ensure that taxpayers can claim all the tax credits possible up to the cumulative amount of tax credits available for the fiscal year.

8. This section shall become effective January 1, 2000, and shall apply to all tax years after December 31, 1999.

135.621. 1. As used in this section, the following terms mean:

(1) "Contribution", a donation of cash, stock, bonds, other marketable securities, or real property;

(2) "Department", the department of social services;

(3) "Diaper bank", a nonprofit entity located in this state ~~[established and operating primarily for the purpose of collecting or purchasing]~~ that meets the following criteria:

(a) Collects, purchases, warehouses, and manages a community inventory of disposable diapers or other hygiene products for infants, children, or incontinent adults ~~[and that];~~

(b) Regularly distributes a consistent and reliable supply of such diapers or other hygiene products through two or more schools, health care facilities, governmental agencies, or other nonprofit entities for eventual distribution to individuals free of charge, with the intention of reducing diaper need; and

(c) Is a member of a national network organization serving all fifty states through which certification demonstrates nonprofit best practices, data-driven program design, and equitable distribution focused on best serving infants, children, and incontinent adults;

(4) "Tax credit", a credit against the tax otherwise due under chapter 143, excluding withholding tax imposed under sections 143.191 to 143.265, or otherwise due under chapter 148 or 153;

(5) "Taxpayer", a person, firm, partner in a firm, corporation, or shareholder in an S corporation doing business in the state of Missouri and subject to the state income tax imposed under chapter 143; an insurance company paying an annual tax on its gross premium receipts in this state; any other financial institution paying taxes to the state of Missouri or any political subdivision of this state under chapter 148; an express company that pays an annual tax on its gross receipts in this state under chapter 153; an individual subject to the state income tax under chapter 143; or any ~~[charitable]~~ organization that is exempt from federal income tax and whose Missouri unrelated business taxable income, if any, would be subject to the state income tax imposed under chapter 143.

1           2. For all fiscal years beginning on or after July 1, 2019, but ending on or before June 30, 2 2026, a taxpayer shall be allowed to claim a tax credit against the taxpayer's state tax liability in an 3 amount equal to fifty percent of the amount of such taxpayer's contributions to a diaper bank. For 4 all fiscal years beginning on or after July 1, 2026, a taxpayer shall be allowed to claim a tax credit 5 against the taxpayer's state tax liability in an amount equal to one hundred percent of the amount 6 such taxpayer contributed to a diaper bank.

7           3. The amount of the tax credit claimed shall not exceed the amount of the taxpayer's state 8 tax liability for the tax year for which the credit is claimed, and such taxpayer shall not be allowed 9 to claim a tax credit in excess of fifty thousand dollars per tax year. However, any tax credit that 10 cannot be claimed in the tax year the contribution was made may be carried over only to the next 11 subsequent tax year. No tax credit issued under this section shall be assigned, transferred, or sold.

12           4. Except for any excess credit that is carried over under subsection 3 of this section, no 13 taxpayer shall be allowed to claim a tax credit unless the taxpayer contributes at least one hundred 14 dollars to one or more diaper banks during the tax year for which the credit is claimed.

15           5. The department shall determine, at least annually, which entities in this state qualify as 16 diaper banks. The department may require of an entity seeking to be classified as a diaper bank any 17 information which is reasonably necessary to make such a determination. The department shall 18 classify an entity as a diaper bank if such entity satisfies the definition under subsection 1 of this 19 section.

20           6. The department shall establish a procedure by which a taxpayer can determine if an entity 21 has been classified as a diaper bank.

22           7. Diaper banks may decline a contribution from a taxpayer.

23           8. The cumulative amount of tax credits that may be claimed by all the taxpayers 24 contributing to diaper banks in any one fiscal year shall not exceed five hundred thousand dollars.
25 Tax credits shall be issued in the order contributions are received. If the amount of tax credits 26 redeemed in a tax year is less than five hundred thousand dollars, the difference shall be added to 27 the cumulative limit created under this subsection for the next fiscal year and carried over to 28 subsequent fiscal years until claimed.

29           9. The department shall establish a procedure by which, from the beginning of the fiscal 30 year until some point in time later in the fiscal year to be determined by the department, the 31 cumulative amount of tax credits are equally apportioned among all entities classified as diaper 32 banks. If a diaper bank fails to use all, or some percentage to be determined by the department, of 33 its apportioned tax credits during this predetermined period of time, the department may reapportion 34 such unused tax credits to diaper banks that have used all, or some percentage to be determined by 35 the department, of their apportioned tax credits during this predetermined period of time. The 36 department may establish multiple periods each fiscal year and reapportion accordingly. To the 37 maximum extent possible, the department shall establish the procedure described under this 38 subsection in such a manner as to ensure that taxpayers can claim as many of the tax credits as 39 possible, up to the cumulative limit created under subsection 8 of this section.

10. Each diaper bank shall provide information to the department concerning the identity of each taxpayer making a contribution and the amount of the contribution. The department shall provide the information to the department of revenue. The department shall be subject to the confidentiality and penalty provisions of section 32.057 relating to the disclosure of tax information.

11. Under section 23.253 of the Missouri sunset act:

(1) The provisions of the program authorized under this section shall ~~automatically sunset on December thirty-first six years after August 28, 2018, unless reauthorized by an act of the general assembly;~~

(2) ~~If such program is reauthorized, the program authorized under this section shall automatically sunset on December thirty-first six years after the effective date of the reauthorization of this section]~~ be reauthorized as of the effective date of this act and shall expire on December 31, 2031;

~~[(3)]~~ (2) This section shall terminate on September first of the calendar year immediately following the calendar year in which the program authorized under this section is sunset; and ~~[(4)]~~ (3) The provisions of this subsection shall not be construed to limit or in any way impair the department's ability to issue tax credits authorized on or before the date the program authorized under this section expires or a taxpayer's ability to redeem such tax credits.

135.630. 1. As used in this section, the following terms mean:

(1) "Contribution", a donation of cash, stock, bonds, or other marketable securities, or real property;

(2) "Director", the director of the department of social services;

(3) "Pregnancy resource center", a nonresidential facility located in this state:

(a) Established and operating primarily to provide assistance to women and families with crisis pregnancies or unplanned pregnancies by offering pregnancy testing, counseling, emotional and material support, and other similar services or by offering services as described under subsection 2 of section 188.325, to encourage and assist such women and families in carrying their pregnancies to term; and

(b) Where childbirths are not performed; and

(c) Which does not perform, induce, or refer for abortions and which does not hold itself out as performing, inducing, or referring for abortions; and

(d) Which provides direct client services at the facility, as opposed to merely providing counseling or referral services by telephone; and

(e) Which provides its services at no cost to its clients; and

(f) When providing medical services, such medical services must be performed in accordance with Missouri statute; and

(g) Which is exempt from income taxation pursuant to the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended;

(4) "State tax liability", in the case of a business taxpayer, any liability incurred by such taxpayer pursuant to the provisions of chapters 143, 147, 148, and 153, excluding sections 143.191 to 143.265 and related provisions, and in the case of an individual taxpayer, any liability incurred by such taxpayer pursuant to the provisions of chapter 143, excluding sections 143.191 to 143.265 and related provisions;

(5) "Taxpayer", a person, firm, a partner in a firm, corporation, or a shareholder in an S corporation doing business in the state of Missouri and subject to the state income tax imposed by the provisions of chapter 143, or a corporation subject to the annual corporation franchise tax imposed by the provisions of chapter 147, or an insurance company paying an annual tax on its gross premium receipts in this state, or other financial institution paying taxes to the state of Missouri or any political subdivision of this state pursuant to the provisions of chapter 148, or an express company which pays an annual tax on its gross receipts in this state pursuant to chapter 153, or an individual subject to the state income tax imposed by the provisions of chapter 143, or any [charitable] organization which is exempt from federal income tax and whose Missouri unrelated business taxable income, if any, would be subject to the state income tax imposed under chapter 143.

2. (1) Beginning on March 29, 2013, any contribution to a pregnancy resource center made on or after January 1, 2013, shall be eligible for tax credits as provided by this section.

(2) For all tax years beginning on or after January 1, 2007, and ending on or before December 31, 2020, a taxpayer shall be allowed to claim a tax credit against the taxpayer's state tax liability in an amount equal to fifty percent of the amount such taxpayer contributed to a pregnancy resource center. For all tax years beginning on or after January 1, 2021, but ending on or before December 31, 2025, a taxpayer shall be allowed to claim a tax credit against the taxpayer's state tax liability in an amount equal to seventy percent of the amount such taxpayer contributed to a pregnancy resource center. For all tax years beginning on or after January 1, 2026, a taxpayer shall be allowed to claim a tax credit against the taxpayer's state tax liability in an amount equal to one hundred percent of the amount such taxpayer contributed to a pregnancy resource center.

3. The amount of the tax credit claimed shall not exceed the amount of the taxpayer's state tax liability for the tax year for which the credit is claimed, and such taxpayer shall not be allowed to claim a tax credit in excess of fifty thousand dollars per tax year. However, any tax credit that cannot be claimed in the tax year the contribution was made may be carried over only to the next succeeding tax year. No tax credit issued under this section shall be assigned, transferred, or sold.

4. Except for any excess credit which is carried over pursuant to subsection 3 of this section, a taxpayer shall not be allowed to claim a tax credit unless the total amount of such taxpayer's contribution or contributions to a pregnancy resource center or centers in such taxpayer's tax year has a value of at least one hundred dollars.

5. The director shall determine, at least annually, which facilities in this state may be classified as pregnancy resource centers. The director may require of a facility seeking to be classified as a pregnancy resource center whatever information which is reasonably necessary to make such a determination. The director shall classify a facility as a pregnancy resource center if such facility meets the definition set forth in subsection 1 of this section.

1           6. The director shall establish a procedure by which a taxpayer can determine if a facility 2 has been classified as a pregnancy resource center. Pregnancy resource centers shall be permitted to 3 decline a contribution from a taxpayer. The cumulative amount of tax credits which may be claimed 4 by all the taxpayers contributing to pregnancy resource centers in any one fiscal year shall not 5 exceed two million dollars for all fiscal years ending on or before June 30, 2014, and two million 6 five hundred thousand dollars for all fiscal years beginning on or after July 1, 2014, and ending on 7 or before June 30, 2019, and three million five hundred thousand dollars for all fiscal years
8 beginning on or after July 1, 2019, and ending on or before June 30, 2021. For all fiscal years
9 beginning on or after July 1, 2021, there shall be no limit imposed on the cumulative amount of tax 10 credits that may be claimed by all taxpayers contributing to pregnancy resource centers under the 11 provisions of this section. Tax credits shall be issued in the order contributions are received. If the 12 amount of tax credits redeemed in a fiscal year is less than the cumulative amount authorized under 13 this subsection, the difference shall be carried over to a subsequent fiscal year or years and shall be 14 added to the cumulative amount of tax credits that may be authorized in that fiscal year or years.

15           7. For all fiscal years ending on or before June 30, 2021, the director shall establish a 16 procedure by which, from the beginning of the fiscal year until some point in time later in the fiscal 17 year to be determined by the director, the cumulative amount of tax credits are equally apportioned 18 among all facilities classified as pregnancy resource centers. If a pregnancy resource center fails to 19 use all, or some percentage to be determined by the director, of its apportioned tax credits during 20 this predetermined period of time, the director may reapportion these unused tax credits to those 21 pregnancy resource centers that have used all, or some percentage to be determined by the director, 22 of their apportioned tax credits during this predetermined period of time. The director may establish 23 more than one period of time and reapportion more than once during each fiscal year. To the 24 maximum extent possible, the director shall establish the procedure described in this subsection in 25 such a manner as to ensure that taxpayers can claim all the tax credits possible up to the cumulative 26 amount of tax credits available for the fiscal year.

27           8. Each pregnancy resource center shall provide information to the director concerning the 28 identity of each taxpayer making a contribution to the pregnancy resource center who is claiming a 29 tax credit pursuant to this section and the amount of the contribution. The director shall provide the 30 information to the director of revenue. The director shall be subject to the confidentiality and 31 penalty provisions of section 32.057 relating to the disclosure of tax information.

32           9. The provisions of section 23.253 shall not apply to this section."; and 33

34 Further amend said bill by amending the title, enacting clause, and intersectional references 35 accordingly.
