AMEND House Amendment No. ____ to House Committee Substitute for House Bill No. 916, Page 1, Line 17, by deleting said line and inserting in lieu thereof the following:

"appropriate legal authority and the right to confidentiality of personal records.

217.1250. 1. The department of corrections shall establish a boot camp incarceration program for persons sentenced under section 557.530, to be known as the "Motivational Boot Camp Incarceration Program".

2. For purposes of this section, the following terms mean:

(1) "Department", the department of corrections;

(2) "Eligible inmate", a person seventeen years of age or older and younger than twenty-two years of age who is sentenced to the program as provided under section 557.530;

(3) "Motivational boot camp", an incarceration program in which eligible inmates participate for a period of two years in a humane program that provides for rigorous physical activity and intensive regimentation and discipline;

(4) "Program", the motivational boot camp incarceration program established under this section.

3. The program shall include:

(1) As a major component, a strong emphasis on work, physical activity, physical conditioning, and good health practices;

(2) A strong emphasis on intensive counseling and treatment programming designed to correct criminal and other maladaptive thought processes and behavior patterns and to instill self-discipline and self-motivation;

(3) A detailed, clearly written explanation of program goals, objectives, rules, and criteria that shall be provided to, read by, and signed by all enrollees; and

(4) An enrollment period of two years.

4. The department of corrections shall promulgate all necessary rules and regulations for the implementation and administration of the program. Any rule or portion of a rule, as that term is defined in section 536.010, that is created under the authority delegated in this section shall become effective only if it complies with and is subject to all of the provisions of chapter 536 and, if

6 Further amend said bill, Page 6, Section 492.304, Line 42, by inserting after all of said section and 7 line the following:

9 "557.530. 1. Any person who is seventeen years of age or older and under twenty-two years
10 of age and who has had two prior convictions for nonviolent criminal offenses may upon a third
11 conviction involving a nonviolent criminal offense be sentenced to the motivational boot camp
12 incarceration program established under section 217.1250 in lieu of a jail or prison sentence.

13 2. A person sentenced to the motivational boot camp incarceration program under 14 subsection 1 of this section shall be enrolled in the motivational boot camp incarceration program
15 for a period of two years. The time shall begin upon the initial confinement in the program.

16 3. Before a court may place a person in the motivational boot camp incarceration program, 17 an initial investigation shall be completed by an officer indicating that the:

18 (1) Person is qualified for placement in the motivational boot camp incarceration program
19 and the person does not appear to be physically or mentally disabled in a way that would prevent the 20 person from performing strenuous physical activity;

21 (2) Person has no obvious contagious diseases;

22 (3) Person is not under seventeen years of age or is not twenty-two years of age or older at 23 the time of sentencing; and

24 (4) Department of corrections has granted provisional approval of the placement of the 25 person in the motivational boot camp incarceration program.

26 4. The court shall direct the department of corrections to arrange with the sheriff's 27 department in the county of incarceration to have the person delivered to the boot camp within a 28 specific date that is not more than fifteen days after the issuance of the order for placement in the 29 motivational boot camp incarceration program.

30 5. At any time during the person's confinement in the motivational boot camp incarceration
31 program, but at least five days prior to the person's expected date of release, the department of 32 corrections shall certify to the court as to whether the person has satisfactorily completed the 33 motivational boot camp incarceration program.

34 6. Upon receipt of a satisfactory report of performance in the motivational boot camp 35 incarceration program from the department of corrections, the court shall release the person from 36 confinement, and, notwithstanding any provision of law, the offense for which the person was 37 sentenced to the boot camp may be expunged from the person's criminal record.

38 7. Receipt of an unsatisfactory report shall be grounds for the court to impose the jail or 39 prison sentence for the offense in which the person was convicted.

1           8. If the person convicted indicates that he or she does not want to be sentenced to the 2 motivational boot camp incarceration program or the person is not eligible to be sentenced to the 3 motivational boot camp incarceration program, the court may sentence the person to jail or prison
4 time as provided by law.

5           9. As used in this section, "nonviolent criminal offense" means any offense that is not
6 murder in the first or second degree, involuntary manslaughter, involuntary manslaughter in the first
7 or second degree, kidnapping, kidnapping in the first degree, rape in the first degree, forcible rape,
8 sodomy in the first degree, forcible sodomy, robbery in the first degree, or assault in the first 9 degree."; and"; and
