4 "~~632.305.~~ 1. An application for detention for evaluation and treatment at a mental health 5 facility may be executed by any adult person, who need not be an attorney or represented by an 6 attorney, on a form provided by the court for such purpose, and shall allege under oath~~[, without a~~
7 ~~notarization requirement,~~] that the applicant has reason to believe that the respondent is suffering 8 from a mental disorder and presents a likelihood of serious harm to himself or herself or to others.
9 The application shall specify the factual information on which such belief is based and should 10 contain the names and addresses of all persons known to the applicant who have knowledge of such 11 facts through personal observation.

12 2. The filing of a written application in court by any adult person, who need not be an 13 attorney or represented by an attorney, shall authorize the applicant to bring the matter before the 14 court on an ex parte basis to determine whether the respondent should be taken into custody and 15 transported to a mental health facility. The application may be filed in the court having probate 16 jurisdiction in any county where the respondent may be found. If the court finds that there is 17 probable cause, either upon testimony under oath or upon a review of affidavits, declarations, or 18 other supporting documentation, to believe that the respondent may be suffering from a mental 19 disorder and presents a likelihood of serious harm to himself or herself or others, it shall direct a 20 peace officer to take the respondent into custody and transport him or her to a mental health facility 21 for detention for evaluation and treatment for a period not to exceed ninety-six hours unless further 22 detention and treatment is authorized pursuant to this chapter. Nothing herein shall be construed to 23 prohibit the court, in the exercise of its discretion, from giving the respondent an opportunity to be 24 heard.

25 3. A peace officer may take a person into custody for detention for evaluation and treatment
26 at a mental health facility for a period not to exceed ninety-six hours only when such peace officer 27 has reasonable cause to believe that such person is suffering from a mental disorder and that the 28 likelihood of serious harm by such person to himself or herself or others is imminent unless such

Action Taken _____ Date _____

1 person is immediately taken into custody. Upon arrival at the mental health facility, the peace 2 officer who conveyed such person or caused him or her to be conveyed shall either present the 3 application for detention for evaluation and treatment upon which the court has issued a finding of 4 probable cause and the respondent was taken into custody or complete an application for initial 5 detention for evaluation and treatment for a period not to exceed ninety-six hours which shall be 6 based upon his or her own personal observations or investigations and shall contain the information 7 required in subsection 1 of this section.

8 4. If a person presents himself or herself or is presented by others to a mental health facility 9 and a licensed physician, a registered professional nurse or a mental health professional designated 10 by the head of the facility and approved by the department for such purpose has reasonable cause to 11 believe that the person is mentally disordered and presents an imminent likelihood of serious harm 12 to himself or herself or others unless he or she is accepted for detention, the licensed physician, the 13 mental health professional or the registered professional nurse designated by the facility and 14 approved by the department may complete an application for detention for evaluation and treatment
 15 for a period not to exceed ninety-six hours. The application shall be based on his or her own 16 personal observations or investigation and shall contain the information required in subsection 1 of 17 this section.

18 5. (1) No notarization shall be required for an application, or for any affidavits, 19 declarations, or other documents supporting an application, completed or executed by:

20 (a) A peace officer under subsection 3 of this section;

21 (b) A licensed physician, mental health professional, or registered professional nurse under 22 subsection 4 of this section; or

23 (c) An employee acting on behalf of a hospital, as defined in section 197.020, under 24 subsections 1 and 2 of this section.

25 (2) The application and any affidavits, declarations, or other documents supporting the 26 application shall be subject to the provisions of section 492.060 allowing for declaration under 27 penalty of perjury.
