4 "537.046. 1. As used in this section, the following terms mean:

5 (1) "Childhood sexual abuse", any act committed by the defendant against the plaintiff 6 which act occurred when the plaintiff was under the age of eighteen years and which act would have 7 been a violation of section 566.030, 566.040, 566.050, 566.060, 566.070, 566.080, 566.090, 8 566.100, 566.110, or 566.120, or section 568.020;

9 (2) "Injury" or "illness", either a physical injury or illness or a psychological injury or 10 illness. A psychological injury or illness need not be accompanied by physical injury or illness.

11 2. Any action to recover damages from injury or illness caused by childhood sexual abuse 12 in an action brought pursuant to this section shall be commenced within ten years of the plaintiff
13 attaining the age of twenty-one or within three years of the date the plaintiff discovers, or reasonably 14 should have discovered, that the injury or illness was caused by childhood sexual abuse, whichever 15 later occurs.

16 3. This section shall apply to any action commenced on or after August 28, [2004, including 17 any action which would have been barred by the application of the statute of limitation applicable 18 prior to that date] 2025.

19 4. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, a nondisclosure agreement by any party to 20 any child sexual abuse claim shall not be judicially enforceable in a dispute involving any child 21 sexual abuse claims and shall be null and void."; and

22
23 Further amend said bill by amending the title, enacting clause, and intersectional references
