FISCAL ANALYSIS

ASSUMPTION

§452.305 – Pregnancy Status with a Dissolution of Marriage or Legal Separation

Officials from the Office of State Courts Administrator (OSCA) state there may be some impact but there is no way to quantify that currently. Any significant changes will be reflected in future budget requests.

Oversight notes OSCA assumes this proposal may have some impact on their organization although it can't be quantified at this time. As OSCA is unable to provide additional information regarding the potential impact, Oversight assumes the proposed legislation will have a $0 to (Unknown) cost to the General Revenue Fund. For fiscal note purposes, Oversight also assumes the impact will be under $250,000 annually. If this assumption is incorrect, this would alter the fiscal impact as presented in this fiscal note. If additional information is received, Oversight will review it to determine if an updated fiscal note should be prepared and seek approval to publish a new fiscal note.

Officials from the Department of Social Services assume the proposal will have no fiscal impact on their organization. Oversight does not have any information to the contrary. Therefore, Oversight will reflect a zero impact in the fiscal note.

Oversight notes the following chart is from an article in Newsweek from February 2024 (Map Shows US States Where Pregnant Women Can't Get Divorced - Newsweek) on the current status each state has on dissolution of marriage and pregnancy status:

States where couples cannot get divorced during a pregnancy

■ No ban
 ■ No ban, but likely to wait until after end of pregnancy
 ■ Ban

FISCAL IMPACT – Small Business

No direct fiscal impact to small businesses would be expected as a result of this proposal.

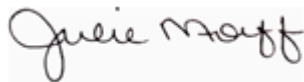

FISCAL DESCRIPTION

As specified in this bill, pregnancy status will not prevent the court from entering a judgment of dissolution of marriage or legal separation.

This legislation is not federally mandated, would not duplicate any other program and would not require additional capital improvements or rental space.
