FISCAL ANALYSIS

ASSUMPTION

Officials from the Attorney General's Office did not respond to Oversight's request for fiscal impact for this proposal.

§537.767 – Civil Actions for Personal Injury, Death or Property Damage

In response to a previous version, officials from the Office of Attorney General (AGO) assumed any potential litigation costs arising from this proposal can be absorbed with existing resources. However, the AGO may seek additional appropriations if the proposal results in a significant increase in litigation or investigation.

Oversight does not have any information to the contrary. Therefore, Oversight assumes the AGO will be able to perform any additional duties required by this proposal with current staff and resources and will reflect no fiscal impact to the AGO for fiscal note purposes.

Officials from the Department of Commerce and Insurance, Department of Labor and Industrial Relations, the Office of the State Courts Administrator, the Department of Revenue and the Office of Administration each assume the proposal will have no fiscal impact on their respective organizations. Oversight does not have any information to the contrary. Therefore, Oversight will reflect a zero impact in the fiscal note for these agencies.

Oversight notes the following number of tort cases over the last 5 years involving personal injury, property damage and wrongful death.

	Tort	Tort	Tort	Tort	Tort
	Cases	Cases	Cases	Cases	Cases	5 Year

FISCAL IMPACT – Small Business

Small businesses who have civil claims for personal injury, property damage or death brought against them could be impacted by this proposal.

FISCAL DESCRIPTION

The proposed legislation appears to have no direct fiscal impact.

This legislation is not federally mandated, would not duplicate any other program and would not require additional capital improvements or rental space.
