FISCAL ANALYSIS

ASSUMPTION

§311.355 – Repeals provisions relating to rebate coupons from manufacturers of intoxicating liquor

Officials from the Department of Revenue (DOR) state currently manufacturers of intoxicating liquor other than beer and wine, are allowed to offer coupons to customers for the purchase of their brand of liquor. These coupons are mail-in rebates from the consumer to the manufacturer. This proposal is allowing beer manufacturers to offer these types of coupons.

DOR will not be impacted by this provision as the full price of the intoxicating liquor will still be subject to sales tax at the retail store. The customer is getting the rebate from the manufacturer after proof of purchase. Therefore, sales tax will have already been collected on the product.

Oversight does not have any information to the contrary. Therefore, Oversight will reflect a zero impact in the fiscal note.

Officials from the Department of Public Safety (DPS) – Alcohol and Tobacco Control (ATC) assume the proposal will have no fiscal impact on their organization. Oversight does not have any information to the contrary. Therefore, Oversight will reflect a zero impact in the fiscal note.

In response to similar legislation from the current session (SB 515), officials from the Office of Administration - Budget and Planning defer to the DPS-ATC regarding the potential fiscal impact of this proposal.
