5 2. A parent or guardian of a child or an individual with whom a child has been

16 transfer violates subsection 1 of this section. This prohibition does not apply if the 17 person, as soon as practicable after the transfer, notifies the children's division of the 18 transfer or takes appropriate action to establish custody under subsection 2 of this
19 section.

20 4. Violation of this section is a class B misdemeanor.

21 5. Violation of subsection 1 of this section is not established solely because a
22 parent or guardian that transfers custody of a child does not regain custody.

453.712. 1. If the children's division has a reasonable basis to believe that a
2 person has transferred or will transfer custody of a child in violation of subsection 1 of 3 section 453.710, the children's division may conduct a home visit as provided by other
4 law of this state and take appropriate action to protect the welfare of the child.

6 through an intercountry adoption, the children's divisions shall:

- 7 (1) Prepare a report on the welfare and plan for permanent placement of the 8 child; and

10 3. Sections 453.700 to 453.740 do not prevent the children's division from taking 11 appropriate action under other law of this state.

453.714. 1. A person may not solicit or advertise to:

- 2 (1) Identify a person to which to make a transfer of custody in violation of 3 subsection 1 of section 453.710;

7 section 453.710.

8 2. Violation of this section is a class B misdemeanor.

453.716. A law enforcement agency may investigate a possible violation of 2 sections 453.706 to 453.714 and take legal action as provided by law of this state.

453.718. In sections 453.718 to 453.732, "prospective adoptive parent" means an individual who has been approved or permitted under other law of this state to adopt a child.

453.720. Sections 453.718 to 453.732 apply to placement for adoption of a child who:

- (4) Prohibitions under sections 453.710 and 453.714.

453.724. 1. Except as prohibited by other law of this state, within a reasonable time before a child-placing agency places a child for adoption with a prospective adoptive parent, the agency shall provide or cause to be provided to the prospective adoptive parent information specific to the child that is known to or reasonably obtainable by the agency and material to the prospective adoptive parent's informed decision to adopt the child. The information must include:

- (1) The child's family, cultural, racial, religious, ethnic, linguistic, and educational background;
- (2) The child's physical, mental, emotional, and behavioral health;
- (3) Circumstances that might adversely affect the child's physical, mental, emotional, or behavioral health;
- (4) The child's medical history, including immunizations;

18 acquisition training, available to the adoptive parent and child after placement for 19 adoption or adoption to assist in responding effectively to physical, mental, emotional,
20 or behavioral health issues; and

21 (9) Available records relevant to the information in subdivisions (1) through (8)
22 of this subsection.

23 2. If, before an adoption is finalized, additional information under subsection 1
24 of this section that is material to a prospective adoptive parent's informed decision to 25 adopt the child becomes known to or reasonably obtainable by the child-placing agency,
26 the agency shall provide the information to the prospective adoptive parent.

27 3. If, after an adoption is finalized, additional information under subsection 1 of 28 this section becomes known to the child-placing agency, the agency shall make a
29 reasonable effort to provide the information to the adoptive parent.

 453.726. 1. A child-placing agency placing a child for adoption shall provide or
2 cause to be provided to the prospective adoptive parent guidance and instruction
3 specific to the child to help prepare the parent to respond effectively to needs of the child
4 that are known to or reasonably ascertainable by the agency.

5 2. The guidance and instruction under subsection 1 of this section must address,
6 if applicable:

7 (1) The potential effect on the child of:

22 the adoption is finalized; or

23 (2) For an intercountry adoption, in accordance with federal law.

 453.728. On request of a child who was placed for adoption or the child's
2 adoptive parent, the child-placing agency placing the child or the children's division
3 shall provide information about how to obtain financial assistance or support services:

4 (1) To assist the child or parent to respond effectively to adjustment, behavioral
5 health, and other challenges; and

6 (2) To help preserve the placement or adoption.

 453.730. 1. A law enforcement agency may investigate an allegation that a child-
2 placing agency has failed to comply with sections 453.718 to 453.732 and commence an
3 action for injunctive or other relief or initiate an administrative proceeding against the 4 child-placing agency to enforce sections 453.718 to 453.732.

5 2. The children's division may initiate a proceeding to determine whether a
6 child-placing agency has failed to comply with sections 453.718 to 453.732. If the 7 children's divisions finds that the child-placing agency has failed to comply, the 8 children's division may suspend or revoke the agency's license or take other action
9 permitted by law of this state.

2 Signatures in Global and National Commerce Act, 15 U.S.C. Section 7001 et seq., as
3 amended, but do not modify, limit, or supersede 15 U.S.C. Section 7001(c), or authorize
4 electronic delivery of any of the notices described in 15 U.S.C. Section 7003(b).

 453.740. If a provision of sections 453.700 to 453.740 or its application to a
2 person or circumstance is held invalid, the invalidity does not affect another provision
3 or application that can be given effect without the invalid provision.

 453.742. Sections 453.700 to 453.740 supplement the provisions under this
2 chapter and chapter 210 for the transfer of custody of a child. To the extent the 3 provisions under this chapter or chapter 210 are inconsistent with sections 453.700 to
