

FIRST REGULAR SESSION
HOUSE COMMITTEE SUBSTITUTE FOR HOUSE BILL NO. 202
103RD GENERAL ASSEMBLY

0773H.02C

JOSEPH ENGLER, Chief Clerk

AN ACT

To repeal section 288.050, RSMo, and to enact in lieu thereof one new section relating to employment security.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the state of Missouri, as follows:

Section A. Section 288.050, RSMo, is repealed and one new section enacted in lieu thereof, to be known as section 288.050, to read as follows:

288.050. 1. Notwithstanding the other provisions of this law, a claimant shall be disqualified for waiting week credit or benefits until after the claimant has earned wages for work insured pursuant to the unemployment compensation laws of any state equal to ten times the claimant's weekly benefit amount if the deputy finds:

(1) That the claimant has left work voluntarily without good cause attributable to such work or to the claimant's employer. A temporary employee of a temporary help firm will be deemed to have voluntarily quit employment if the employee does not contact the temporary help firm for reassignment prior to filing for benefits. Failure to contact the temporary help firm will not be deemed a voluntary quit unless the claimant has been advised of the obligation to contact the firm upon completion of assignments and that unemployment benefits may be denied for failure to do so. "Good cause", for the purposes of this subdivision, shall include only that cause which would compel a reasonable employee to cease working or which would require separation from work due to illness or disability. The claimant shall not be disqualified:

(a) If the deputy finds the claimant quit such work for the purpose of accepting a more remunerative job which the claimant did accept and earn some wages therein;

(b) If the claimant quit temporary work to return to such claimant's regular employer;
or

EXPLANATION — Matter enclosed in bold-faced brackets [thus] in the above bill is not enacted and is intended to be omitted from the law. Matter in bold-face type in the above bill is proposed language.

19 (c) If the deputy finds the individual quit work, which would have been determined 20 not suitable in accordance with paragraphs (a) and (b) of subdivision (3) of this subsection, 21 within twenty-eight calendar days of the first day worked;

22 (d) As to initial claims filed after December 31, 1988, if the claimant presents
23 evidence supported by competent medical proof that she was forced to leave her work 24 because of pregnancy, notified her employer of such necessity as soon as practical under the 25 circumstances, and returned to that employer and offered her services to that employer as 26 soon as she was physically able to return to work, as certified by a licensed and practicing 27 physician, but in no event later than ninety days after the termination of the pregnancy. An 28 employee shall have been employed for at least one year with the same employer before she 29 may be provided benefits pursuant to the provisions of this paragraph;

30 (e) If the deputy finds that, due to the spouse's mandatory and permanent military 31 change of station order, the claimant quit work to relocate with the spouse to a new residence
32 from which it is impractical to commute to the place of employment and the claimant 33 remained employed as long as was reasonable prior to the move. The claimant's spouse shall 34 be a member of the U.S. Armed Forces who is on active duty, or a member of the National 35 Guard or other reserve component of the U.S. Armed Forces who is on active National Guard 36 or reserve duty. The provisions of this paragraph shall only apply to individuals who have 37 been determined to be an insured worker as provided in subdivision (22) of subsection 1 of 38 section 288.030;

39 (2) That the claimant has retired pursuant to the terms of a labor agreement between 40 the claimant's employer and a union duly elected by the employees as their official 41 representative or in accordance with an established policy of the claimant's employer; or

42 (3) (a) That the claimant failed without good cause ~~[either]~~ to:

43 a. Apply for available suitable work when so directed by a deputy of the division or 44 designated staff of an employment office as defined in subsection 1 of section 288.030~~], or~~ 45 ~~to~~];

46 b. Accept suitable work when offered ~~[the claimant, either through the division or~~ 47 ~~directly by an employer by whom the individual was formerly employed, or to]~~;

48 c. Appear for a scheduled job interview for suitable work or a skills test three 49 times within an unemployment cycle when such interview or skills test is offered to the 50 claimant, either through the division or directly by an employer; or

51 d. Return to the individual's customary self-employment, if any, when so directed by 52 the deputy.

53 (b) For the purposes of this subdivision, an offer of suitable work, suitable job 54 interview, or skills test shall be rebuttably presumed if an employer notifies the claimant in 55 writing of such offer [by sending an acknowledgment via any form of certified mail issued by

56 ~~the United States Postal Service stating such offer to the claimant at the claimant's last known~~
57 ~~address]~~ or by a method or manner prescribed by the division. Nothing in this subdivision 58 shall be construed to limit the means by which the deputy may establish that the claimant has 59 or has not been sufficiently notified of available work. In enforcing this subdivision, the 60 division shall establish a method allowing verified employers to report any individual 61 who fails to accept or respond to an offer of employment or appear for a previously 62 scheduled job interview or skills test.

63 ~~[(a)]~~ (c) In determining whether or not any work is suitable for an individual, the 64 division shall consider, among other factors and in addition to those enumerated in paragraph 65 (b) of this subdivision, the degree of risk involved to the individual's health, safety and 66 morals, the individual's physical fitness and prior training, the individual's experience and 67 prior earnings, the individual's length of unemployment, the individual's prospects for 68 securing work in the individual's customary occupation, the distance of available work from 69 the individual's residence and the individual's prospect of obtaining local work; except that, if 70 an individual has moved from the locality in which the individual actually resided when such 71 individual was last employed to a place where there is less probability of the individual's 72 employment at such individual's usual type of work and which is more distant from or 73 otherwise less accessible to the community in which the individual was last employed, work
74 offered by the individual's most recent employer if similar to that which such individual
75 performed in such individual's last employment and at wages, hours, and working conditions 76 which are substantially similar to those prevailing for similar work in such community, or any 77 work which the individual is capable of performing at the wages prevailing for such work in 78 the locality to which the individual has moved, if not hazardous to such individual's health, 79 safety or morals, shall be deemed suitable for the individual.

80 ~~[(b)]~~ (d) Notwithstanding any other provisions of this law, no work shall be deemed 81 suitable and benefits shall not be denied pursuant to this law to any otherwise eligible 82 individual for refusing to accept new work under any of the following conditions:

83 a. If the position offered is vacant due directly to a strike, lockout, or other labor 84 dispute;

85 b. If the wages, hours, or other conditions of the work offered are substantially less 86 favorable to the individual than those prevailing for similar work in the locality;

87 c. If as a condition of being employed the individual would be required to join a 88 company union or to resign from or refrain from joining any bona fide labor organization.

89 2. If a deputy finds that a claimant has been discharged for misconduct connected 90 with the claimant's work, such claimant shall be disqualified for waiting week credit and 91 benefits, and no benefits shall be paid nor shall the cost of any benefits be charged against any 92 employer for any period of employment within the base period until the claimant has earned

93 wages for work insured under the unemployment laws of this state or any other state as 94 prescribed in this section. In addition to the disqualification for benefits pursuant to this 95 provision the division may in the more aggravated cases of misconduct cancel all or any part 96 of the individual's wage credits, which were established through the individual's employment 97 by the employer who discharged such individual, according to the seriousness of the 98 misconduct. A disqualification provided for pursuant to this subsection shall not apply to any 99 week which occurs after the claimant has earned wages for work insured pursuant to the 100 unemployment compensation laws of any state in an amount equal to six times the claimant's 101 weekly benefit amount. Should a claimant be disqualified on a second or subsequent 102 occasion within the base period or subsequent to the base period the claimant shall be 103 required to earn wages in an amount equal to or in excess of six times the claimant's weekly 104 benefit amount for each disqualification.

105 3. Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection 1 of this section, a claimant may not 106 be determined to be disqualified for benefits because the claimant is in training approved 107 pursuant to Section 236 of the Trade Act of 1974, as amended, (19 U.S.C.A. Sec. 2296, as 108 amended), or because the claimant left work which was not suitable employment to enter
109 such training. For the purposes of this subsection "suitable employment" means, with respect 110 to a worker, work of a substantially equal or higher skill level than the worker's past adversely
111 affected employment, and wages for such work at not less than eighty percent of the worker's 112 average weekly wage as determined for the purposes of the Trade Act of 1974.
