347.202. 1. Except as otherwise provided in this section, by complying with sections 347.200 to 347.214, a domestic entity may become a domestic entity of the same type in a foreign jurisdiction if the domestication is authorized by the law of the foreign jurisdiction.

5 2. Except as otherwise provided in this section, by complying with sections 6 347.200 to 347.214 applicable to foreign entities, a foreign entity may become a domestic 7 entity of the same type in this state if the domestication is authorized by the law of the 8 foreign entity's jurisdiction of organization.

9 3. When the term "domestic entity" is used in sections 347.200 to 347.214 with 10 reference to a foreign jurisdiction, it means an entity whose internal affairs are 11 governed by the law of the foreign jurisdiction.

12 4. If a protected agreement contains a provision that applies to a merger of a 13 domestic entity but does not refer to a domestication, the provision applies to a amended after August 28, 2025. 15 347.204. 1. A domestic entity may become a foreign entity in a domestication by approving a plan of domestication. The plan shall be in a record and contain: 2 3 (1) The name and type of the domesticating entity; 4 (2) The name and jurisdiction of organization of the domesticated entity; 5 (3) The manner of converting the interests in the domesticating entity into interests, securities, obligations, rights to acquire interests or securities, cash, or other 6 7 property, or any combination of the foregoing; (4) The proposed public organic document of the domesticated entity if it is a 8 9 filing entity; 10 (5) The full text of the private organic rules of the domesticated entity that are proposed to be in a record; 11 (6) The other terms and conditions of the domestication; and 12 13 (7) Any other provision required by the law of this state or the organic rules of 14 the domesticating entity. 2. A plan of domestication may contain any other provisions not prohibited by 15 16 law.

17 3. The entity shall maintain the plan of domestication in accordance with the 18 entity's policy for maintaining books and records.

347.206. 1. A plan of domestication is not effective unless it has been approved: (1) By a domestic domesticating entity:

3 (a) In accordance with the requirements, if any, in its organic rules for approval 4 of a domestication:

5 (b) If its organic rules do not provide for approval of a domestication, in accordance with the requirements, if any, in its organic law and organic rules for 6 approval of: 7

8 a. In the case of an entity that is not a business corporation, a merger, as if the 9 domestication were a merger; or

10 b. In the case of a business corporation, a merger requiring approval by a vote of the interest holders of the business corporation, as if the domestication were that type of 11 12 merger; or

13 (c) If neither its organic law nor organic rules provide for approval of a 14 domestication or a merger described in subparagraph b of paragraph (b) of this 15 subdivision, by all of the interest holders of the entity entitled to vote on or consent to any matter; and 16

14 domestication of the entity as if the domestication were a merger until the provision is

17 (2) In a record, by each interest holder of a domestic domesticating entity that 18 will have interest holder liability for liabilities that arise after the domestication 19 becomes effective, unless, in the case of an entity that is not a business corporation or 20 nonprofit corporation:

(a) The organic rules of the entity in a record provide for the approval of a domestication or merger in which some or all of its interest holders become subject to interest holder liability by the vote or consent of fewer than all of the interest holders;
and

25 (b) The interest holder voted for or consented in a record to that provision of the 26 organic rules or became an interest holder after the adoption of that provision.

27 2. A domestication of a foreign domesticating entity is not effective unless it is 28 approved in accordance with the law of the foreign entity's jurisdiction of organization.

347.208. 1. A plan of domestication of a domestic domesticating entity may be 2 amended:

3 (1) In the same manner as the plan was approved, if the plan does not provide 4 for the manner in which it may be amended; or

5 (2) By the governors or interest holders of the entity in the manner provided in 6 the plan, but an interest holder that was entitled to vote on or consent to approval of the 7 domestication is entitled to vote on or consent to any amendment of the plan that will 8 change:

9 (a) The amount or kind of interests, securities, obligations, rights to acquire 10 interests or securities, cash, or other property, or any combination of the foregoing, to be 11 received by any of the interest holders of the domesticating entity under the plan;

12 (b) The public organic document or private organic rules of the domesticated 13 entity that will be in effect immediately after the domestication becomes effective, except 14 for changes that do not require approval of the interest holders of the domesticated 15 entity under its organic law or organic rules; or 16 (c) Any other terms or conditions of the plan, if the change would adversely 17 affect the interest holder in any material respect.

2. After a plan of domestication has been approved by a domestic domesticating entity and before a statement of domestication becomes effective, the plan may be abandoned:

(1) As provided in the plan; or

22 (2) Unless prohibited by the plan, in the same manner as the plan was approved.

3. If a plan of domestication is abandoned after a statement of domestication has been filed with the secretary of state and before the filing becomes effective, a statement of abandonment, signed on behalf of the entity, shall be filed with the secretary of state before the time the statement of domestication becomes effective. The statement of abandonment takes effect upon filing, and the domestication is abandoned and does not become effective. The statement of abandonment shall contain:

28 29

(1) The name of the domesticating entity;

2. A statement of domestication shall contain:

- (2) The date on which the statement of domestication was filed; and
- 31 (3) A statement that the domestication has been abandoned in accordance with32 this section.

347.210. 1. A statement of domestication shall be signed on behalf of the 2 domesticating entity and filed with the secretary of state.

3 4

(1) The name, jurisdiction of organization, and type of the domesticating entity;

(2) The name and jurisdiction of organization of the domesticated entity;

6 (3) If the statement of domestication is not to be effective upon filing, the later 7 date and time on which it will become effective, which shall not be more than thirty days 8 after the date of filing;

- 9 (4) If the domesticating entity is a domestic entity, a statement that the plan of 10 domestication was approved in accordance with sections 347.200 to 347.214 or, if the 11 domesticating entity is a foreign entity, a statement that the domestication was approved 12 in accordance with the law of its jurisdiction of organization;
- 13 (5) If the domesticated entity is a domestic filing entity, its public organic 14 document, as an attachment signed by a person authorized by the entity;

15 (6) If the domesticated entity is a domestic limited liability partnership, its 16 statement of qualification, as an attachment; and

17 (7) If the domesticated entity is a foreign entity that is not a qualified foreign 18 entity, a mailing address to which the secretary of state may send any process served on 19 the secretary of state under subsection 5 of section 347.212.

3. In addition to the requirements of subsection 2 of this section, a statement of domestication may contain any other provision not prohibited by law.

4. If the domesticated entity is a domestic entity, its public organic document, if any, shall satisfy the requirements of the law of this state and may omit any provision that is not required to be included in a restatement of the public organic document.

5. A statement of domestication becomes effective upon the date and time of filing or the later date and time specified in the statement of domestication.

347.212. 1. When a domestication becomes effective:

- 2
- (1) The domesticated entity is:
- 3 (a) Organized under and subject to the organic law of the domesticated entity;
- 4 and

5 (b) The same entity without interruption as the domesticating entity, even 6 though the organic law of the domesticated entity may require or allow the name of the 7 domesticated entity to be modified;

8 (2) All property of the domesticating entity continues to be vested in the 9 domesticated entity without assignment, reversion, or impairment;

10 (3) All liabilities of the domesticating entity continue as liabilities of the 11 domesticated entity;

12 (4) Except as provided by law other than as provided in sections 347.200 to 13 347.214 or the plan of domestication, all of the rights, privileges, immunities, powers, 14 and purposes of the domesticating entity remain in the domesticated entity;

15 (5) The name of the domesticated entity may be substituted for the name of the 16 domesticating entity in any pending action or proceeding;

17 (6) If the domesticated entity is a filing entity its public organic document is 18 effective and is binding on its interest holders;

19 (7) The private organic rules of the domesticated entity that are to be in a 20 record, if any, approved as part of the plan of domestication are effective and are 21 binding on and enforceable by:

(a) Its interest holders; and

(b) In the case of a domesticated entity that is not a business corporation or nonprofit corporation, any other person that is a party to an agreement that is part of the domesticated entity's private organic rules; and

(8) The interests in the domesticating entity are converted to the extent and as approved in connection with the domestication, and the interest holders of the domesticating entity are entitled only to the rights provided to them under the plan of domestication and the domesticating entity's organic law.

2. Except as otherwise provided in the organic law or organic rules of the domesticating entity, the domestication does not give rise to any rights that an interest holder, governor, or third party would otherwise have upon a dissolution, liquidation, or winding-up of the domesticating entity.

34 3. When a domestication becomes effective, a person that did not have interest 35 holder liability with respect to the domesticating entity and that becomes subject to 36 interest holder liability with respect to a domestic entity as a result of the domestication 37 has interest holder liability only to the extent provided by the organic law of the entity 38 and only for those liabilities that arise after the domestication becomes effective.

4. When a domestication becomes effective:

40 (1) The domestication does not discharge any interest holder liability under the 41 organic law of a domestic domesticating entity to the extent the interest holder liability 42 arose before the domestication became effective;

43 (2) A person does not have interest holder liability under the organic law of a
44 domestic domesticating entity for any liability that arises after the domestication
45 becomes effective;

46 (3) The organic law of a domestic domesticating entity continues to apply to the 47 release, collection, or discharge of any interest holder liability preserved under 48 subdivision (1) of this subsection as if the domestication had not occurred; and

49 (4) A person has whatever rights of contribution from any other person as are 50 provided by the organic law or organic rules of a domestic domesticating entity with 51 respect to any interest holder liability preserved under subdivision (1) of this subsection 52 as if the domestication had not occurred.

53 5. When a domestication becomes effective, a foreign entity that is the 54 domesticated entity:

55 (1) May be served with process in this state for the collection and enforcement of 56 any of its liabilities; and

57 (2) Appoints the secretary of state as its agent for service of process for collecting 58 or enforcing those liabilities.

59 6. If the domesticating entity is a qualified foreign entity, the certificate of 60 authority or other foreign qualification of the domesticating entity is cancelled when the 61 domestication becomes effective.

62 7. A domestication does not require the entity to wind up its affairs and does not
63 constitute or cause the dissolution of the entity.

347.214. 1. (1) Any copies, photostatic or otherwise, of documents filed in the office of the secretary of state in accordance with sections 347.200 to 347.214, when certified by the secretary of state under the seal of the state, shall be taken and received in all courts, public offices, and official bodies as prima facie evidence of the facts stated in the documents.

6 (2) Certificates by the secretary of state under the seal of the state as to the 7 existence or nonexistence of facts relating to entities filing under sections 347.200 to 8 347.214, which would not appear from a certified copy of any document, shall be taken 9 and received in all courts, public offices, and official bodies, as prima facie evidence of 10 the existence or nonexistence of the facts stated in the documents.

11 2. All documents required under sections 347.200 to 347.214 to be filed in the 12 office of the secretary of state shall be made on forms prescribed and furnished by the 13 secretary of state.

14 3. All documents required under sections 347.200 to 347.214 to be filed in the 15 office of the secretary of state shall contain the filing entity's file number as assigned by 16 the office of the secretary of state.

17 The secretary of state may adopt rules and regulations governing the 4. 18 procedure and forms necessary to implement sections 347.200 to 347.214. Any rule or 19 portion of a rule, as that term is defined in section 536.010, that is created under the 20 authority delegated in this section shall become effective only if it complies with and is 21 subject to all of the provisions of chapter 536 and, if applicable, section 536.028. This 22 section and chapter 536 are nonseverable and if any of the powers vested with the general assembly pursuant to chapter 536 to review, to delay the effective date, or to 23 24 disapprove and annul a rule are subsequently held unconstitutional, then the grant of 25 rulemaking authority and any rule proposed or adopted after August 28, 2025, shall be 26 invalid and void.
