

Journal of the House

ONE HUNDRED THIRD GENERAL ASSEMBLY of the
STATE OF MISSOURI

FIRST REGULAR SESSION

FIRST DAY, WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 8, 2025

The House was called to order at twelve o'clock noon by the Honorable John R. Ashcroft, Secretary of State.

Prayer by Reverend Monsignor Robert A. Kurwicky, V.G., St. Peter Catholic Church, Jefferson City, Missouri.

Bear ye one another's burdens and so fulfill the law of Christ. (Galatians 6:2)

Eternal God, our Creator, before the work of a new year and session begins, we will be still in Your presence and receive the invocation of Your spirit. May the words of our mouths and the meditations of our hearts be acceptable in Your sight. Cleansed by Your forgiving love, made stronger by Your spirit, and becoming wise with Your wisdom, we would face the unfinished tasks committed to our care this day.

These are times which call for greater courage, higher wisdom, broader sympathy, and deeper faith. May they increasingly become ours as we wait upon You. In all our decisions and in all our doing may we keep our hearts confident, our spirits courageous, our minds clear, and our hands clean. Together may we move forward to a greater day for our Missouri citizens.

And the House says, "Amen!"

The Missouri State Highway Patrol Troop F Color Guard presented the Colors.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

"The Star-Spangled Banner" was performed by Caitlyn Thompson.

Secretary Ashcroft addressed the House.

ADDRESS BY TEMPORARY SPEAKER ANN KELLEY

Ladies and gentlemen, esteemed colleagues, and honored guests,

Today, I stand before you with immense gratitude and humility as I accept the role of temporary speaker of the Missouri House of Representatives during this 103rd General Assembly. It is a privilege to serve in this esteemed body, where our collective commitment to the people of Missouri drives our every decision and action.

As we embark on this legislative session, I am reminded of the responsibility that each one of us carries. Our constituents have entrusted us with their hopes, dreams, and concerns, and it is our duty to listen, to engage, and to act. In this chamber, we represent diverse voices and perspectives, and it is this diversity that will strengthen our state.

I would like to extend my gratitude to my fellow representatives for your unwavering support and confidence in my ability to lead during this critical time. Together, we will foster an environment of collaboration and respect, where every member has the opportunity to contribute to the important work ahead.

Let us approach our tasks with open minds and hearts, embracing the challenges we face as opportunities for growth and improvement. The issues before us—education, healthcare, infrastructure, and public safety—are not just policy matters; they are about the lives of our constituents and the future of our communities.

As we deliberate, let us remember that civility and bipartisanship are the cornerstones of effective governance. We may not always agree, but we can always strive to understand one another. It is through respectful dialogue that we will find common ground and build lasting solutions.

I encourage each of you to bring your passion and dedication to the floor, to advocate for those who cannot advocate for themselves, and to ensure that every voice is heard in our discussions. Together, we can and will make a difference.

In closing, I thank you for this opportunity to serve as your temporary speaker. I look forward to working alongside each of you as we navigate this session together, united in our purpose to serve the people of Missouri.

Thank you. Now, let's get started with today's agenda.

ADDRESS BY SPEAKER JONATHAN PATTERSON

Mr. Secretary, Madam Speaker, distinguished guests, Members of the House of Representatives,

Our constitution instructs us to meet at this date and at this hour, but it is our constituents, our neighbors, our fellow Missourians, who call us here today to once again renew our democracy.

And so we begin the work of the 103rd general assembly. It is my great honor to welcome all of you here today to this great hall, a place that some have called the front porch of our democracy.

I wish to thank my colleagues for this high honor of being named your speaker. I am truly humbled by your trust in me and I will work every day to be worthy of that trust.

Every Speaker of the House is unique from the one before. For example, I am the first Speaker from Jackson County in 157 years. I am the first medical doctor to serve as Speaker in 140 years. And I am the first Asian American Speaker in Missouri history. But here, in this body, our uniqueness is forgotten. On this floor, we lose our names. Here, I am the gentleman from Jackson. This is not a place for egos. We leave egos to those on the other side of the rotunda.

Losing our names is a timeless reminder that our names are unimportant. It is the people we represent that matter most and the areas we represent that supersede us. Long after we are gone and but a picture on a wall, the gentleman or lady from Jackson will still rise on this floor.

Being elected state representative is a truly special honor. And none of us in here did this alone. We are here today because of the love and support of our families. While we are getting the attention and accolades, they are often the ones behind the scenes doing the thankless work while we are here in Jefferson City. Like all of you, I am deeply indebted to my family, who are here today. My wife, Jennifer, and our kids, Leah and Andrew, and I ask that you make them feel welcome. Guys, it's been a crazy 6 years and I couldn't have done it without you and I wouldn't want to be here without you.

I'm also joined here today by my 5 siblings, Greg, Lori, Lindsey, Jenny, Jeff, and all of their spouses, and I ask that they stand and I ask the members to welcome them. Between the 6 of us kids, I'm proud to say there are 19 children, all of them the grandkids of my parents, Joe and Elaine of Blue Springs, and I ask that we all make them feel welcome.

My parents are the embodiment of the promise of Missouri and they are a good reminder of what we need to be doing here for the next 4 months.

Both of my parents were born and raised in the state just to the west, and they went to school there. But it was Missouri where they chose to make their life together. After my dad's time in the air force, they moved to Blue Springs, where he had a good job with a great Missouri company, Hallmark Cards. In a Missouri town they found safe neighborhoods, good public schools for their kids, and a community of people who shared their values.

They chose to make their kids their priority. With the hundreds of soccer, basketball, and volleyball games, choir and piano lessons and recitals, there really wasn't much time for anything else. But their family is what they valued most. And in the end, they were able to realize their dream of sending all of their kids to college. One to Westminster college, three to William Jewell, and two to a little place called Mizzou.

My friends, if you have any questions about what we should be doing here in Jefferson City, I submit to you that there is no greater pursuit for us than making sure that every family in Missouri has the opportunities that Missouri had for Joe and Elaine. That families want to move to Missouri and live out their dreams here, just as my parents did.

So let us commit today to each other that we here in the House are here to serve Missouri families and that we will put Missouri Families first.

For Missouri families, there can be no greater gift than the gift of life. That means, while we respect the will of the voters, we must clarify the provisions of Amendment 3 and make Missouri the most pro-life state it can be.

The last general assembly left unfinished business on the table. Legislation that would have mandated the state apply for the benefits of foster children with deceased parents should have been passed but fell victim to our inaction and politics. We must prioritize the most vulnerable among us, especially our foster children. Therefore, I will refer that same legislation to the committee next week and I ask that it be first bill sent to the senate for their consideration.

Mental health continues to be a problem afflicting our youth. It is an issue that is seemingly getting worse and worse every year. The general assembly has recently invested in pediatric mental health with a 25 million dollar investment in the Illuminate Initiative at Children's Mercy Hospital in Kansas City. We must continue to invest in treatment for pediatric mental health and I ask that the House budget committee once again make appropriations for mental health treatment for our kids.

Today, too many Missouri families are being torn apart by violence and crime. Nothing is more harmful to the growth of our state than criminals who roam our streets with little fear of punishment. Therefore, we must pass legislation that addresses the critical issue of public safety. I hope legislation that seeks to recruit and retain police officers to our cities will be supported by members on both sides of the aisle.

Finally, Missouri's families continue to be burdened with trying to find childcare spots that are too hard to find and too expensive. This is something I personally heard time and time again from constituents as I visited with them this past summer. The lack of affordable and accessible childcare causes billions of dollars of losses and around $5,500 per working parent each year. I ask that the House once again take up and pass legislation that will provide incentives to businesses and childcare facilities to increase the number of childcare slots available to Missouri parents.

When the history of the 103rd general assembly is written, what will they say about us? Will we be remembered for our accomplishments and all that we did to make Missouri better? Or will we be remembered as a group who was too preoccupied with politics and Facebook videos to do any serious work.

As your speaker, I ask you to join me today and commit to working together to make life safer, better, and more affordable for Missouri families. When we have our differences, let us argue with respect. And when we find common goals let us pursue them with the energy and passion fitting the people we serve. Let's get to work for Missouri families.

My congratulations to you all and your families on your elections. It is truly a special honor to play a part in the story of our state as state representative.

May God bless you. May God bless the work we will do together. And may God continue to shine his light on the show me state.

NOMINATIONS FOR SPEAKER PRO TEM

Representative Farnan nominated Representative Chad Perkins as Speaker Pro Tem of the House.

Representative Seitz seconded the nomination.

Representative Riley moved that nominations cease and Representative Perkins be elected by acclamation.

Which motion was adopted.

The following committee was appointed to escort Representative Perkins to the dais: Representatives Hardwick, Reuter, Byrnes, Owen, Van Schoiack, Terry, and Proudie.

Representative Perkins subscribed to the oath of office, which was administered by the Honorable Jim Beck, Judge of the 45th Judicial Circuit Court of Missouri.

Speaker Pro Tem Perkins assumed the Chair.

ADDRESS BY SPEAKER PRO TEM CHAD PERKINS

First, I want to thank God. I cannot express how deeply He has blessed my life in ways that are beyond my hand or any other human hand.

I want to thank my family, who is here today, as well.

I am grateful to the Gentleman from Nodaway and the Gentleman from Taney for their kind words. To the escort committee, thank you—you honor me with your assistance.

There are three little girls in my family here today, and I want them to know—and for all the young ladies across the great state of Missouri to know—that you don't have to look far to find a hero.

We have dedicated public servants right here in this room, whom young women can look up to and aspire to be like.

The Lady from St. Charles County, District 65—she can tell you exactly where every dime in our budget is spent and works tirelessly to eliminate waste.

The Lady from St. Louis City, District 77—she has devoted herself to providing education and job training for the nearly 20,000 offenders in our Department of Corrections. She understands that education is key to breaking the cycle of poor decision-making.

The Lady from St. Louis County, District 88—she has fought tirelessly against human trafficking. Missouri's women are safer today because of her dedication.

The Lady from Cass County, District 62—small businesses in Missouri have no greater champion.

The Lady from St. Louis County, District 73—since the day she arrived here, she has been a relentless advocate for battered and abused women. Her work to support victims of domestic violence is truly the Lord's work.

Finally, the Lady from St. Charles County, District 63—her righteous struggle to expose the cancer outbreak in St. Charles County has given a voice to many who felt unheard.

These women are heroes, and every young woman can aspire to follow their example.

When I first came to the legislature, I was told that someday I would just be a face in a picture on the wall. But I want to tell every freshman here today that, after years of service, I've learned this: someday your face or name may be forgotten, but the work you do here will endure. Let your work here be your legacy.

This year, I begin my 31st year in country radio. If I have ever shared sage advice with any of you, it likely came from an old country song. Why should today be any different? So, I'll leave you with this:

“Stand up for the flag, and let's all ring the Liberty Bell. Let's make a Ford and Chevy that'll last ten years like they should. Because the best of the free life is still yet to come, and the good times ain't over for good.”

Thank you. God bless you. God bless the great state of Missouri, and God bless the United States of America.

Speaker Patterson resumed the Chair.

Pursuant to Section 9.141, RSMo, the United States Bill of Rights was read by Leah and Andrew Patterson.

The Speaker appointed the following to act as Honorary Pages for the Day, to serve without compensation: Parker Ryan Zeller, Fletcher Owen Zeller, Zoe May Zeller, Noah Anthony Turner, Quinn Avery Turner, Sloane Elyse Turner, Mya Elena Turner, Bryn Marie Turner, Lincoln Patrick Turner, Grant William Grammer, Olivia Lynn Grammer, Isaac Easton Patterson, John David Patterson, and Samuel Scott Patterson.

(e) Once a bill has been amended, it shall be in the possession of the House.

(f) If a proposed amendment has been defeated, the same amendment shall not be proposed again. An amendment identical to one previously decided on the same bill is not in order, except for amendments to appropriations bills.

(3) Committee Substitutes Treated as Original. A House Committee Substitute shall be considered as an original bill for purposes of amendment.

(4) House Substitute. No House Substitute will be in order except those reported from the House Committee on Legislative Review. No House amendment which, in the opinion of the Speaker, is effectually replacing the underlying bill or committee substitute will be in order.

(a) A bill may be sent to the Committee on Legislative Review prior to the adoption of any House Committee Substitute; prior to the bill's perfection, if a House bill; or prior to third reading, if a Senate bill.

(b) A House Substitute shall take the form of an original bill and is subject to floor amendments, except that it shall not be subject to an amendment by a subsequent House Substitute.

(c) Any House Substitute reported from the Committee on Legislative Review shall lie on the calendar at least one legislative day in advance of consideration on the House floor.

(d) A House Substitute reported from the Committee on Legislative Review shall not be offered on the House floor in the form of an amendment.

(5) When Federal Mandate Bills can be Amended. Amendments to House and Senate bills-Federal Mandate are permitted only within the scope of the federal mandate. Perfecting amendments are permitted to make technical amendments.

(6) Appropriations Bills.

(a) No amendment to the appropriations bills of the state budget shall be in order if it increases the total amount of general revenue or general revenue equivalent appropriated in the House appropriations bills. Any amendment that increases the amount of general revenue or general revenue equivalent appropriated in the House appropriations bills shall be required to be submitted with a separate amendment that makes an equal reduction in general revenue or general revenue equivalent in the same bill or any other of the bills still pending. If the reduction is in another bill, the decreasing amendment shall be taken up first, and the increasing amendment may be taken up only if the decreasing amendment is adopted. When a pair of amendments is submitted, the decreasing amendment shall be required to clearly identify the corresponding increasing amendment.

(b) If a member's decreasing amendment is adopted and the same member's increasing amendment is defeated, the decreasing amendment's adoption is moot.

(c) The offering and adoption of an amendment decreasing the amount of general revenue or general revenue equivalent appropriated without a balancing increase creates no right of another member to offer an increasing amendment in any amount up to the amount of the decrease effected by the decreasing amendment, and no member may be recognized for the purpose of making such an amendment.

(d) For the perfection of the House appropriations bills of the state budget only, it shall be permissible to amend any line item as often as the House pleases, as long as prior adopted amendments to the line item are taken into account.

(e) Notwithstanding any rule to the contrary, neither substitute amendments nor amendments to amendments shall be in order for any appropriations bill other than technical corrections under Rule 49(1).

Committee Substitute Printed

Rule 50. When a committee recommends a substitute for a bill, the original bill will accompany the substitute. The substitute shall be handled on the floor of the House by the committee chair or any member designated by the committee chair. The Chief Clerk shall have an appropriate number of copies of the substitute printed. No committee substitute shall be called from the calendar of the House until the printed copies have been distributed for at least one legislative day. Amendments, if any, may be offered to the substitute before the vote on the motion to adopt the substitute is taken. If the substitute is defeated, the original bill shall be before the House for perfection and shall be considered and shall be handled on the floor by the original sponsor of the bill. Notwithstanding the provisions of this rule, the Speaker may, at any time, change the House handler of any bill or substitute unless the sponsor of the House bill objects.

Order of Amendments

Rule 51. When amendments to any bill, motion, or proposition are pending, they shall be voted on in the following order:

(1) Amendments to the amendment are disposed of before the substitute is taken up. Only one amendment to the amendment is in order at one time; but as rapidly as one is disposed of by rejection or incorporation as a part of the amendment, another is in order as long as any member desires to offer one.

(2) Amendments to the substitute are next voted on, and may be offered, one at a time, and as rapidly as one is disposed of by rejection or incorporation as a part of the substitute amendment, another is in order as long as any member desires to offer one, until the substitute amendment is adopted.

(3) The substitute amendment, as amended, is next voted on. If the substitute amendment is adopted, the underlying amendment to which it was offered shall not be voted upon, but the substitute amendment shall become part of the bill.

(4) The amendment is voted on last. If any substitute has not been agreed to, the vote comes on the amendment as amended.

(5) The House Committee Substitute is next voted upon, after opportunity for amendment. If the House Committee Substitute is adopted, there shall be an additional vote for the perfection of the bill, as amended.

(6) If there is no House Committee Substitute, or if the House Committee Substitute is not adopted, the original House Bill is next voted upon, after opportunity for amendment.

All amendments adopted by the House to a bill originating in the House shall be incorporated in the bill as perfected, and the bill, as thus perfected, shall be printed for the use of the members before its final passage, provided that the bill shall be subject to a titling amendment before the vote on perfection is taken. For purposes of this rule, a titling amendment shall not count against the Rule 87 prohibition on speaking twice on the same question. The perfecting and printing shall be done under the supervision of the Chief Clerk who shall assure that the bill is truly perfected and the printed copies furnished to the members are correct.

(3) Notice Requirements. No conference committee report shall be taken up and considered unless the same has been distributed to the members at least one legislative day prior to consideration.

(4) Exceeding the Differences. Unless authority is granted by the House to exceed the differences, the conferees shall confine themselves to matters that are within the scope of the differences between the House position and the Senate position. When a report is offered for adoption, the point of order that the conferees have exceeded the differences shall be in order. The Speaker may rule on the point of order or may place the question of whether the conferees have exceeded the differences before the House for a vote. A majority of members voting prevails on the question.

Rule 76. Any member may move the previous question. The motion shall be restated by the Speaker in this form: "Shall the question under immediate consideration be now put?". It may be moved like any other question but it shall only prevail when supported by a constitutional majority and until decided shall preclude amendments and debate. If the motion is sustained, the proponent of the matter under consideration shall be allowed one minute in which to make a closing statement before the House votes on the question. If the motion to reconsider is sustained, the House shall proceed to the original question or motion immediately before proceeding to other questions; whereupon the original question shall be voted upon before any other business of the House is transacted. This shall not preclude further debate or amendment of the proposition, if otherwise appropriate. Any motion to reconsider having failed once shall not be reconsidered again, except to reconsider the vote by which an appropriation bill failed to pass. In the case of an appropriation bill, the motion to reconsider may be considered as many times as the House chooses.

HOUSE ELECTION CONTEST

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
STATE OF MISSOURI

STEPHANOS FREEMAN,)

JEREMY DEAN,)

VERIFIED PETITION

COMES NOW Petitioner Stephanos Freeman and submits this Verified Petition in the above-captioned matter pursuant to Mo. Rev. Stat. Section 115.565 to the Speaker of the House of the Missouri House of Representatives. For his Verified Petition, Petitioner states as follows:

PARTIES

1. Petitioner was the Republican candidate for House District 132 in the general election that was held on November 5, 2024.
2. Respondent was the Democrat candidate for House District 132 in the general election that was held on November 5, 2024.

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

3. This petition seeks an order disqualifying Respondent Jeremy Dean from serving in the Missouri House of Representatives as a representative of District 132 due to his failure to meet the residency requirements set forth in Article III, Section IV of the Missouri Constitution. Revised Statutes Section 115.563 provides that any contested election for the office of state representative shall be heard and determined by the state house of representatives.
4. Pursuant to Mo. Rev. Stat. Section 115.565, the house of representatives has exclusive jurisdiction over election contests based on the unadjudicated qualifications of a candidate for office.
5. This contest has not been previously adjudicated, and therefore the state house of representatives has jurisdiction over the contest.

FACTS RELEVANT TO THE PETITION

6. The Missouri Constitution requires that each representative, “before the day of his election,” be a “resident of the...district which he is chosen to represent for one year.” Mo. Const. Art. III, §4.
7. In order to be qualified for the office of Representative of District 132, Jeremy Dean was required to have resided in District 132 since November 5, 2023.
8. On September 10, 2024, Respondent informed Petitioner that he has not lived in District 132 since November 5, 2023 (which would be for a full year prior to the upcoming election).

9. This conversation on September 10, 2024, was the first time Petitioner learned that Respondent was not qualified for the position due to failure to meet residency requirements set forth in the Missouri Constitution.

10. Upon learning this information on September 10, 2024, Petitioner then discovered that Respondent has utilized many residential addresses within the one-year period preceding the upcoming November 5, 2024 general election.

11. According to publicly available property tax records for calendar year 2023, Respondent paid personal property taxes on his 2016 Nissan a few days late – on January 3, 2024. At that time, he reported his home address as 515 W Whiteside St., Springfield, MO 65807. This address is outside of District 132. See Exhibit A, attached hereto.

12. Based on information and belief, Respondent has used an address on Cresthaven in Springfield, MO, outside of District 132, at various times before the one-year period prior to the upcoming election, and likely was still living there and renting the residence during the one-year period prior to the election.

13. When Respondent filed his Missouri Ethics Commission registration to form his campaign committee on November 1, 2023, he stated that his address is on Market Avenue in Springfield, MO, which is outside of District 132. See Exhibit B, attached hereto.

14. Respondent changed his registration for his campaign committee on December 3, 2024 to an address inside District 132: 914 Central, Springfield, MO. He also changed his personal address to the same Central address as of that same date.

15. The property at 914 Central is located in District 132, but Respondent does not claim to reside there until December 3, 2023, which is less than one year prior to the election. See Exhibit C, attached hereto.

16. Based on information and belief, and according to publicly available property records, the property at 914 Central is owned by Respondent's employer, a tax-exempt non-profit 501(c)(3) organization, the Drew Lewis Foundation, Inc.

17. Drew Lewis Foundation had not been paying property taxes on its house at 914 Central even though it was not being used for non-profit purposes, as Respondent Jeremy Dean claims he started living in it AFTER November 5, 2023.

18. Based on information and belief, the non-profit Drew Lewis Foundation could not have permitted Respondent to live in the house located at 914 Central, and is further prohibited from allowing it to be used or using it for a campaign committee or for any campaign purposes at all.

19. Regardless, based on information and belief, Respondent has at least not lived at 914 Central in the Drew Lewis Foundation's house for a full year prior to the election.

20. In October 2024, after Petitioner raised the issue of the tax-free status of Respondent's Campaign Committee office, Respondent filed an amended statement of committee organization with the Missouri Ethics Commission, changing the address of his campaign committee to a p.o. box. See Exhibit D, attached hereto.

COUNT I

21. Petitioner restates and realleges the allegations contained in paragraphs 1-21.

22. Petitioner challenges the qualifications of Respondent to seek election for House of Representatives for District 132.

23. Petitioner will produce evidence that Respondent failed to meet the residency requirement of the Missouri Constitution and is therefore disqualified from holding office.

24. Petitioner will produce evidence that Respondent failed to pay taxes and is therefore disqualified from holding office.

WHEREFORE, Petitioner prays leave to produce evidence that Respondent did not reside in District 132 for a full year prior to November 5, 2024 and Petitioner further seeks an order from the appropriate court declaring Respondent therefore unqualified for the office of House of Representatives for District 132, and for such other and further relief this court deems just and proper.

GOVERNOR’S PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, Article IV, Section 27, authorizes the Governor to control the rate at which any appropriation is expended by allotment and, further, authorizes the Governor to reduce the expenditures of the state or any of its agencies below their appropriations whenever the actual revenues are less than the revenue estimates upon which the appropriations were based; and

WHEREAS, in addition to the power to control the rate of expenditure established in Article IV, Section 27, three percent of each appropriation, with the exception of amounts for personal service to pay salaries fixed by law, shall be set aside pursuant to Section 33.290, RSMo, as a reserve fund and not subject to expenditure except with the approval of the Governor; and

WHEREAS, Article IV, Section 27.2, provides that the Governor notify the General Assembly “whenever the rate at which any appropriation shall be expended is not equal quarterly allotments, the sum of which shall be equal to the amount of the appropriation”; and
