

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

First Regular Session, 103rd General Assembly

THIRTIETH DAY, THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 27, 2025

The House met pursuant to adjournment.

Speaker Patterson in the Chair.

Prayer by Representative Brian Seitz.

Father, we come to You in faith, asking for wisdom as we navigate the legislation that You've put before us today.

Help us to represent You, as we represent the people, in thought, word and deed.

Give us a spirit of discernment as we make decisions, and help us to remember that we are here to serve others, not self.

In Jesus's name we pray. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Journal of the twenty-ninth day was approved as printed by the following vote:

February 24, 2025

Jon Patterson, Speaker
Missouri House of Representatives
State Capitol Building
Room 308
Jefferson City, MO 65101

Mr. Speaker,

Your Committee on Elections has taken up and considered House Election Contest No. 1. The committee found that the notice required in statute was neither timely nor sufficient. The below listed members are pleased to submit the attached report:

PETITION

On January 3, 2025, contestant Stephanos Freeman submitted a verified petition to the Speaker of the Missouri House of Representatives. Petitioner Freeman received verification of receipt of the petition by the Chief Clerk of the House of Representatives.

Contestant Freeman, candidate for Missouri House District 132, alleged that the winner of the election for Missouri House District 132, contestee Jeremy Dean, failed to meet the residency requirements set forth in Article III, Section 4 of the Missouri Constitution, and sought an order disqualifying Representative Dean from serving in the Missouri House of Representatives.

This petition was referred to the Committee on Elections on January 30, 2025, as House Election Contest No. 1.

RELEVANT PROVISIONS OF LAW

A review of relevant constitutional provisions, statutes, and House rules found the following:

- Per Article III Section 18 of the Missouri Constitution, each house of the General Assembly shall be sole judge of the qualifications, election and returns of its own members, and may determine the rules of its own proceedings.
- Per section 115.563, RSMo, all contested elections for the office of State Representative shall be heard and determined by the House of Representatives.
- Per section 115.573, RSMo, the determination made by the House of Representatives on a contested election shall be final and not subject to court review.
- Per section 115.565, RSMo, in the case of contests based on the qualifications of a candidate for an office, not later than 30 days after the results of the general election have been certified by the Secretary of State, any candidate who wishes to contest the qualifications of another candidate shall file a verified petition with the Speaker of the House. The petition shall set forth the points on which the contestant wishes to contest the election. The House shall have exclusive jurisdiction over all matters relating to the contest.

- Per section 115.567, RSMo, at the time of filing, the contestee shall be served with a copy of the petition by the contestant or his representative. If the contestee is not found within two days after the petition is filed, the copy of the petition and notice shall be left at the residence address shown on the contestee's declaration of candidacy and by posting the petition in a conspicuous place in the office of the Chief Clerk of the House.
- Per House Rule 36, whenever there shall be filed with the Speaker a notice of contest of the election of a member of the House, he or she shall refer the same, without discussion, either to the regular standing Committee on Elections or a special standing committee appointed to hear the matter. Such committee shall examine the timeliness and sufficiency of the notice and report to the House its recommendations.

ACTIVITY OF THE COMMITTEE AND RECOMMENDATION

On February 20, 2025, the Committee on Elections noticed up House Election Contest No. 1 for public hearing and executive session.

Chair Reedy invited contestant Freeman to address the committee. The committee sought to verify the timeliness and sufficiency of the notice required by sections 115.565 and 115.567, RSMo. Contestant Freeman produced the verification of receipt of the petition by the Chief Clerk as evidence of sufficiency of notice required by 115.565, RSMo. When asked whether he served the contestee with a copy of the petition at the time of filing or left a copy of the petition at the residence address shown on the contestee's declaration of candidacy, contestant Freeman would not answer in the affirmative, and could produce no evidence that he served or attempted to serve the contestee. Considering the evidence presented, the Committee on Elections concluded that contestant Freeman did not serve contestee Dean with a copy of the petition as required by section 115.567, RSMo; thus the notice was neither timely nor sufficient.

By motion of Chair Reedy, the committee entered executive session and took up House Election Contest No. 1. Representative Simmons moved that the committee dismiss House Election Contest No. 1, which motion passed by a vote of 12-0.
