

HB 95 -- PROHIBITION ON BANNING BOOKS

SPONSOR: Ealy

This bill prohibits any library receiving funds from the Federal government, State, or any political subdivision from banning or restricting access to any book or resource in its collection based on partisan or doctrinal disapproval. The bill does not require libraries to purchase or acquire specific books or resources.

This bill is the same as HB 2481 (2024).