

HB 383 -- CRIMINAL OFFENSES INVOLVING CUSTODY OF CHILDREN

SPONSOR: Terry

Currently, the offense of interference with custody is a class A misdemeanor unless the person taken or enticed away from legal custody is removed from the State, in which case it is a class E felony. This bill increases the penalties from a class A misdemeanor to a class E felony and from a class E felony to a class D felony, respectively.

Currently, the offense of parental kidnapping is a class E felony, unless it is committed by detaining or concealing the whereabouts of the child for between 60 and 119 days, in which case it is a class D felony. This bill changes the penalties from a class E felony to a class D felony and from a class D felony to a class C felony, respectively.

This bill is the same as HB 1640 (2024) and HB 62 (2023).
