

HB 479 -- PROTECTION OF ELECTION OFFICIALS

SPONSOR: McGaugh

This bill adds threatening to harm or engaging in conduct reasonably calculated to harass or alarm an election official or a member of an election official's family, attempting to pressure an election official to violate a provision of election law, and doxxing an election official or a member of an election official's family as class three election offenses. If the prohibited activity results in death or bodily injury to an election official or member of the official's family, the offense must be a class B felony.
