

HB 905 -- RETIREMENT AGE OF JUDGES

SPONSOR: Owen

Currently, all judges other than municipal judges must retire at the age of 70. This bill would allow judges who reach the age of 70 to finish out their terms before being required to retire.

The enactment of this provision is contingent upon the passage of an amendment to the Missouri Constitution modifying judges' retirement age.