

HB 919 -- ABORTION

SPONSOR: Gragg

Currently, no abortion can be performed or induced unless and until the woman certifies in writing that she has been presented with certain information and that she has been given the opportunity to view an active ultrasound and hear the heartbeat of the unborn child. This bill changes that provision to require the woman to view the ultrasound and hear the heartbeat of the unborn child if it is audible.