

HJR 29 -- LOCAL SALES TAX

SPONSOR: Kelley

Currently, cities and counties must receive statutory authorization from the General Assembly to submit a proposed sales tax increase to their voters.

Upon voter approval, this Constitutional amendment allows cities and counties to submit proposed sales tax increases to their voters without the need for statutory authorization. Such question could only be submitted to voters on the general election ballot.