

HJR 65 -- CONSTITUTIONAL CHANGE TO JUDGES' RETIREMENT AGE

SPONSOR: Owen

Currently, judges other than municipal judges are required to retire at the age of 70. Upon voter approval, this resolution changes the Missouri Constitution to allow judges who reach the age of 70 to finish out their term before being required to retire.